The Events of the Glorious Cross

Historical Events & Scientific Reports

The concept for the Glorious cross was presented by Madeleine Aumont, a mother of five, in Dozule; France. There are at least three material rationale for building the Glorious Cross: Economic prosperity, physical grandeur and a majestic memorial. The blessed Madeleine brought forth the idea thru her love of Jesus. Jesus requested the construction of the Glorious Cross during the visions of Dozule in the 1970's. The blessed Madeleine reported that in June 1973, Jesus said, "When this Cross is raised up on earth, I shall draw everything to Me."¹¹ This statement is very similar to John 12:32, "And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself." The physical presence of the Glorious Cross would be a fitting homage to all the peoples who've participated in the wars in Europe. It will be visible from the all of the beaches of Normandy, that were involved in the military operations of D-day. Its physical majesty is evident due to its sheer size. Just as Fatima, Portugal, has become a tourist attraction, the economic benefits to Dozule are obvious: Because of the grandeur of the Glorious Cross, Dozule would prosper. The economic well-being of the world is also in jeopardy; due to the world-wide megadrought, brought on by an unexplainable weather phenomenon. This megadrought was foretold by Jesus in 1974, "... A calamitous drought will fall on the entire world. ... it will be a catastrophe, such as has not been since the Deluge, and this will be before the end of the century."¹¹ The April 2020 issue of the journal "Science" has found that the world is experiencing a megadrought; never before seen in history. Thus, by building the Glorious Cross the Lords' words will be honored and people all over the world will prosper; physically, economically and spiritually.

The physical grandeur of the Glorious Cross was described by Mrs. Madeleine (the French variant of the Hebrew name Magdalene). It was defined by Jesus as eight segments of 123[m]¹ (738[m] total height and 246[m] wide); where (x6) segments comprise the main body, plus one segment for each arm. This is interesting when examining the cloak of Our Lady of Guadalupe, where each of the forty-six stars have eight points of light. The image of Our Lady of Guadalupe came to the world thru visitations in 1531.

I. Messages from the Past #1: Our Lady of Guadalupe

The first of four significant visitations occurred in December of 1531 when the blessed virgin Mary (Mexico City, Mexico) appeared to Juan Diego. Juan's native language was that of the Aztec's, Nahuatl. Our Lady, Mary, placed Castilian roses in Juan's cloak:^{18, 19, 20} The Rosa Damascena is a temperate plant indigenous to Europe and Middle East countries of Iran and Turkey. (It is believed that the Damask rose has originated from Damascus and introduced in European countries²): The rose does not grow in Mexico. The cloak itself is/was made from fibrous plant, cactus, material which degenerates in about 10[years]. When Juan opened his cloak in front of the arch-bishop, the flowers fell to the ground and the image remained. To this day, the cloak and image remain intact; long after other cloaks of its type have disintegrated.

The image left upon the cloak by the roses remains in excellent condition, even though artists painted a crown, sometime after its initial presentation to the community, and touched-up the image. The beautiful image becomes more intriguing the deeper one travels.

In 1979 the image was examined by professionals and found no brush sketches, no mistakes; it was painted “in one step.”¹⁹ The image changes color slightly, depending on the angle of view. Anodized aluminum and other modern paints also change color depending on the angle of view. The cloak made of cactus fiber, along with the image should have deteriorated long ago; “it defies explanation.” They also found that the image maintains a constant body temperature of 98/99[F] or 37[C]. “They surprisingly discovered that the stars stunningly and accurately map out the various constellations of the Mexican sky. Even more remarkable is the “star map” on the mantle is in the reverse (the cardinal axis rotated 90 degrees counterclockwise): providing a view of the constellations from beyond them, as would be seen looking through them towards the earth. The constellations are consistent with what astronomers believe was in the sky above Mexico City on the day the apparition occurred – in the winter-morning solstice of December 12, 1531, Saturday, at 10:26AM. ... These 46 stars are the most brilliant stars that surround the horizon of the Mexican Valley which have been identified. ... The Boreal Crown is located above the Virgin's head; Virgo is on her chest, in the region of her hands. Leo on Her womb, precisely above the sign of Nahui Ollin, with his main star Regulo, the small king. Gemini, the twins, is found in the region of the knees and Orion is located where the Angel is.”

Note: The Southern Cross is "hidden."

It can be said that the constellations the experts referred to are "consistent" with the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe; rotated 90[deg] as if looking down, at earth from "above." There are two inconsistencies which appear: The first is that the ratios between the stars don't always line-up and the second is that Orion's belt does not appear rotated the full 90[deg]. Perhaps the star-date maps utilized here-in are not very accurate.

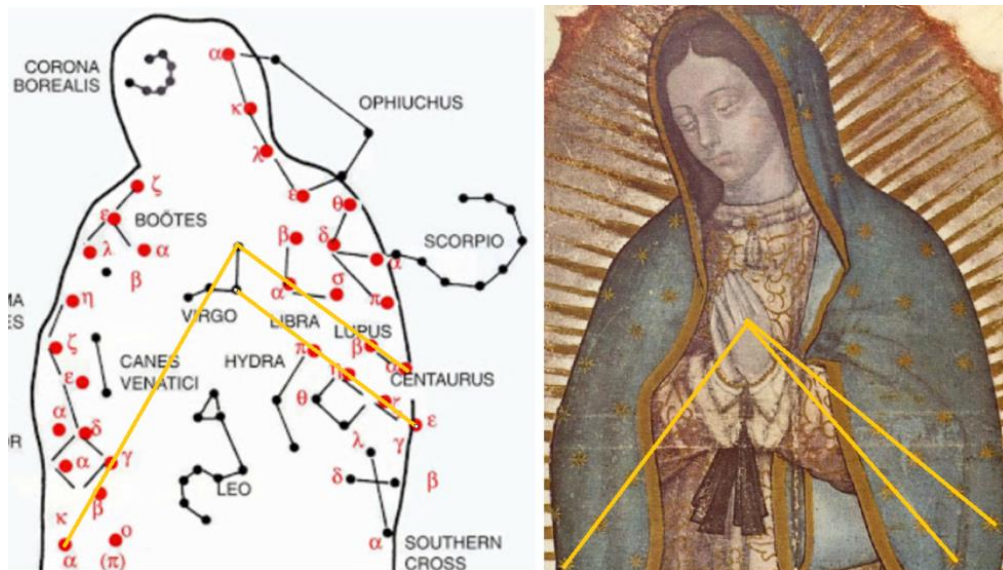

Figure 19: Stars do not Line-up to Praying Hands, Due to Folded Cloak

Concerning the 46 stars of the Lady of Guadalupe:⁴

- There are 46 books in the Old Testaments.
- The angelic number 46²¹ is a reminder from the angels that they will provide you with all the support and encouragement required for attaining your objectives in life. You should only request for assistance and direction from these divine forces.
- There are 24 stars on her left side and 22 stars on her right.
 - The stars most likely refer to Angels (Rev)
 - The 24 stars may refer to the 24 Angels (with golden crowns) around the throne of God (Rev).
 - The 22 stars may refer to the 22 creations of God during the first 6 days of creation;⁷ perhaps there are 22 Angels assigned to those 22 creations.
 - 22 is also associated with Judgement

Guadalupe is not the only case where the figure of a star appeared on the clothing of Mary.⁴ During the visions at Fatima in 1917, when Mary came on the 13th of several months, a star was seen on her gown. The star may reference the Biblical Book of Esther, who became the Queen of Persia. The name Esther is said to be the Persian word for star. In the Bible, Esther saves her Jewish people from annihilation: They were scheduled for death on the 13th of the month of Adar.⁴

The cloak containing the 46 - eight-pointed stars, is also thought to contain the constellation of Pleiades. Various sources state that the Lady shows the Southern Cross for 12 December 1531.⁴ The stars do "move" in the sky over time so it is worth further investigation.

To see the Southern Cross, one must be in the southern hemisphere, or at least as far south as 25°N, where the asterism is visible just above the southern horizon. Observers in the tropical latitudes of the northern hemisphere can see it near the horizon in winter and spring, but only for a few hours every night.⁵ Mexico City falls within these parameters.

Though the cloak of Our Lady of Guadalupe has stars that closely match, are consistent with the Southern Cross, the centric star noted in the constellation is significantly dimmer than the four main stars. Thus, it is difficult to find four stars with the representative ratio mimicking the Southern Cross upon the cloak of the Lady of Guadalupe. Also, the Iota-Crucis and epsilon-Crucis stars do not match the position noted on the cloak; nor are they as bright as the others. Again, it is difficult to say that the stars on the cloak represent the Southern Cross.

In regards to the constellation of Pleiades: Though many people today have forgotten about this constellation, it was a well-known constellation for farmers. It has been known thousands of years prior to the birth of Christ; and it was an important constellation for the Aztec culture. Astronomically, the Aztec 52-year cycle was begun when the "Pleiades crossed the fifth cardinal point or the zenith of heaven at midnight". (Carrasco David, and Matos Moctezuma, Eduardo. Moctezuma's Mexico: Visions of the Aztec World. University Press of Colorado, Niwot, 1992. This quote is from page 151).

Isaiah 22:22 “I will place the key of the House of David on his shoulder; what he opens, no one will shut, what he shuts, no one will open.”

Revelations 1:18 “I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter”

Revelations 3:7 “And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth.”

The Pleiades has the looks of an old fashion key. The word “key” is mentioned (x8) times in the bible; (x3) times in reference to the key to heaven. To those judged worthy (judgment is #22) will receive the key to the gates of heaven.

The Pleiades,⁶ in Greek mythology, are the seven daughters of Atlas and Pleione (named Alcyone, Merope, Electra, Celaeno, Taygeta, Maia, and Asterope). Atlas and Pleione are the neighboring stars, and many Greek temples were oriented to the rising and setting of the Pleiades. The Greeks also referred to the word “Peleiades”(spelled with an extra “e”) as the “Doves.” The earliest recorded reference to the Pleiades, however, may be in Chinese astronomical literature dating from 2357 BCE. For agricultural tribes in the northern hemisphere, the course of the Pleiades indicated the beginning and ending of the growing seasons.

The Pyramid of the Sun outside Mexico City at Teotihuacan is said to be aligned with the Pleiades, for its west face and many of the surrounding streets were aligned directly with the setting point of the Pleiades on midnight of the night when it is at its highest point. The Pleiades was clearly revered also by the Mayans, who in the area of Chichen Itza knew that the Sun casts a snake-like shadow on the side of the north stairway of the Kukulcan pyramid during the spring equinox. Some scholars have calculated that about 60 days after this shadow’s appearance, when the sun reaches its zenith over the Pyramid at mid-day (May 20 – May 23), there is another direct alignment with the Pleiades. This Pleiades-sun alignment may have a direct connection with Quetzalcoatl, the feathered serpent that came to bring a greater wisdom to the planet.

Astronomers tell us that we are in the middle of an interlocking wheel-within-a-wheel within a cosmic time machine that the Mayans and also Egyptians understood, and just as we go around in relationship to our immediate solar paradigm, our entire galactic system currently is moving around in relationship to the larger configuration of the Pleiades, now known to astronomers as Messier 45 (M45). This larger wheel is known as the Precession of the Equinoxes, the period of time that it takes the Earth to pass through one complete cycle of the constellations of the zodiac. It is the earth’s wobble or spinning axis (at an angle) that makes the zodiac appear to move “backwards” one sign about every 2200 years, or about one degree every 72 years. This averages to 12 signs in 26,000 years. The Pleiades occupies a key role in both the Northern and Southern Hemispheres during the Equinoxes and Solstices which are established by this Precession.

In the Northern Hemisphere, at the Spring Equinox, the Pleiades rises during the day, and can be seen only briefly at night. Each day the sun gets a little closer in alignment to the Pleiades so that during the Summer Solstice, the Pleiades rises just before the light of dawn. The first visible rising of the Pleiades before the sun is called the heliacal rise of the Pleiades. During the Fall Equinox, the Pleiades rises at midnight. Today, at the Winter Solstice the Pleiades is visible in the east just after dark. This is because every day it rises some four minutes earlier in the celestial sphere. The Maori of New Zealand utilized the helical rise of the Pleiades, called by them the Matariki, as the beginning of their New Year (June). They also interpreted the Matariki as the mother with six daughters (while others recognized Puanga or Rigel, Orion as the sign of the New Year).

The Pleiades is, thus, a marker for the events of heavenly-earth contact and angelic-human overlap, of meetings recorded by the different cultures of the world with almost uncanny accuracy. Even more important is the dawning realization of the immense age and historical plausibility of those legends of the Pleiades found throughout the world which all point to a greater protection and ultimate transformation of creation that will allow us to go back into the higher heavens, being elevated, reprogrammed and resurrected into the heavens of the Most High God.⁶

The Pleiades constellation can be seen with 5, 6, 7 or 8 stars without aid. The five brightest stars are fairly easy to spot. It is located by utilizing the constellation of Orion's belt to the next brightest star: As seen below, in the northern hemisphere, the constellation is visible from October thru April. Recall, the visitation by Our Lady was in mid-December. The next brightest star "Aldebran" is Latin for "fiery eye." Following the "fiery eye," with about half the distance and slightly off linear/plumb, the constellation Pleiades is found.

An alignment of the stars (left and right) to that of the hand in prayer is clear; on the cloak of Our Lady. This immaculate alignment of eleven stars with the Our Lady's heart bring together eight on her left and three (matching Orion's belt) on her right; eleven total stars connected to Pleiades. As written in the bible, all of these numbers have historical meaning.

A. Numbers – I:

The number 3 is associated with faith and cycles.^{Table 1}

- Is often referred to as the number of good fortune¹³. The number of harmony, wisdom and understanding; past present and future.
- Birth, life and death; the beginning, middle and end. To think good, speak good and to act good.
- Three gifts were given to Israel by God, his law, the land of their inheritance, and their calling.
- Three days for the resurrection.

- Three gifts were given by the three wisemen at the birth of Jesus.
- Jesus was tempted three times:²⁴
 - Satan said, “If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread.” Jesus replied, “Man shall not live by bread alone but from every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.” (Matthew 4:4). Resisting the physical pleasure of being full for spiritual fulfillment.
 - Teleported to the parapet of the temple in a popular, holy city and Satan said, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written: ‘He will command his angels concerning you’ and ‘with their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone.’” Jesus replied, “Again it is written, ‘You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test.’” (Matthew 4:7). Rejecting popularity/fame to save souls.
 - Finally, Satan took Jesus to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence and he said to him, “All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me.” Jesus replied, “Begone, Satan! for it is written, The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.” (Matthew 4:10). Rebuking/dismissing Satan for his insult/s.
- The cock crowed after Peter denied Jesus three times.
- The cross was likely made of three segments of olive wood
 - The main stem
 - The arm/s (the arms were one piece, jointed to the main stem)
 - The foot-pad (nailing the feet to the cross is easier with a foot-pad)
- Jesus falls three times while carrying the cross
 - Olive wood is one of the heaviest in existence
 - 33[%] heavier than oak when it is dry
 - The limb was likely freshly cut; therefore, it would be at least 40[%] heavier
 - The total weight of the cross is at least 400 [Lbf] or 180[kg]
 - 1st time he stumbles, the people throw and cuss at him
 - 2nd time he falls due to exhaustion, a Lady named Veronica wipes his face with a cloth
 - 3rd time he falls due to exhaustion and a carpenter named Simon is told to help him: The soldiers didn’t want Jesus to die early.
- The last three hours of the mortal life of Jesus were spent on a cross of wood; likely with three nails.
- Jesus’ role was threefold, the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6).
- Jesus’ resurrection occurred over, three days and three nights after he was buried, which was at the end of the weekly Sabbath day that fell on Nisan 17 (seventeen symbolizes victory). Nisan 17 was also the eighth day; all this bears record of Jesus’ victory over death⁷.
- After his resurrection, Jesus asked Peter “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” and twice Peter responded (to the effect) “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” After the third time, Peter was distressed that he had said to him a third time, “Do you love me?” and he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” [Jesus] said to him, “Feed my sheep.”
- “... Lord God almighty, which was, and which is, and which is to come.” (Rev)
- Three is the number of the divine, the sacred number in many religions known as The Holy Trinity: The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Holy Singularity.

The number 4 is associated with morality and repentance.^{Table 1}

- Derives its meaning from creation⁷, stability, order and justice.¹³
- God creates the stars on the fourth day.
- The four corners of the earth; the North, South, East and West.
- And the four seasons; the Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter.
- The perfect square, a Tetrad, symbolizes God.¹⁴
- Appearing in Psalm 107 (x4) times “Oh, that men would give thanks to the Lord for His goodness.
- “And for his wonderful works to the children of men!” (Psalm 107:8, 15, 21 and 31).
- The unrepentant will suffer four woes (Ezekiel 14:21) They are the sword, famine, wild beasts and pestilence.
- The number 4 is the number of the cross.
- Four rivers flow out of the garden of Eden.
- Four winds in heaven (Daniel 7:2 & Matthew 24:31).
- Jesus’ garment was made into four parts, one for each soldier (John 29:23).
- Lazarus was dead for four days before Jesus brought him back to life.
- There were four camps for the twelve tribes of Israel: Each with a symbol, a Lion, a Man, a Bull/Ox and an Eagle.
- Four creatures around the throne of God, one with the face of a lion, another with the face of a calf, another with the face of a man and the fourth the beast was like a flying eagle: And around them, four and twenty Elders (Rev).
- Each beast had six wings (6x4 = 24) (Rev).
- There are four horsemen of the apocalypse; riding a white horse and given the power to conquer, a red horse with a sword to remove peace from earth, a black horse with a balance to bring famine and the fourth pale horse carries a sword of death (Rev).
- Jesus’ bride will have (x4) sides with (x3) pearl gates (12 gates total) on each side (Rev).
- These 4 significant visitations urge peoples to repent

The number 7 is associated with time and spiritual gifts.^{Table 1}

- Circles form the Seed of Life.^{7, 13}
- In the book of Revelations there are seven seals, seven churches, seven angels, seven seals, seven trumpets, seven thunders and seven last plagues.
- “... in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the Elders, stood a Lamb as though he had been killed”
 - Which had seven horns
 - meaning 7 leaders or kings; He, the Lamb, is the King of kings.
 - Seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God, sent into all the world.
 - The eye is a conduit to the soul
- The first resurrection of the dead takes place at the 7th trumpet, completing salvation for the Church.
- The number of completeness and perfection (both physical and spiritual).
- The seven sacraments are Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Penance, Anointing of the sick, Holy Orders and Matrimony; and within each, God is present.
- The holy tenant, to forgive 70x7 times (Matthew 18:21).
- The holy commandment, to rest of the seventh day.
- Jesus performed seven miracles on God's holy Sabbath Day (which ran from Friday sunset to Saturday sunset), thus affirming its continued sacredness to God and necessity in the life of the believer.

The number 8 is associated with gate/s and rebirth.^{Table 1}

- in the Bible represents a new beginning, meaning a new order or creation⁷.
- On the eight-day, God created a new heaven and a new earth
- Eight also represents absolute power¹³.
- The number eight in Hebrew means rebirth, a new beginning.
- The New Testament was penned by eight men; Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, James, Peter, Jude, Paul.
- One method of timekeeping used in Israel was called a 'watch.' Watches were time periods in which guards were placed on duty. Although days were initially divided into 6 equal watch periods (Judges 7:19), by the time of the New Testament days were divided into 8 equal parts (Matthew 14:25, Mark 6:48): (x4) at night and (x4) during the day.
- Jesus showed his resurrected-self eight times.
- His first appearance after resurrection was to Mary Magdalene (Mark 16:9 - 11). He then showed himself to two disciples traveling to Emmaus (Luke 24). Next, he appeared to all the disciples except Thomas (John 20:19 - 24) then a week later to all them when Thomas was present (John 20:26 - 29).
- God saved eight people on the ark in order to have a new beginning for mankind after the great flood or Deluge⁷.

As seen in Figure 33, the three stars on our Lady's right side are connected to the eight stars of rebirth on her left; via the "fiery eye." Jesus has said that the eyes are lamp of the body. The eight stars of rebirth match the trapezoidal Aztec sign of rebirth above her womb. All of these stars intersect at our Mothers' praying hands.

Utilizing Latin as the bridging language to Hebrew and the summation of names (gematria) it is found that the name Juan Diego sums to 33.²⁵ The meaning of the number 33 (3+3 = 6) is connected to certain promises made by God. The 33rd time Noah's name is used in Scripture is when God makes a special covenant or promise⁷. It is important to note that Jesus used Latin as the bridging language during the visitations of the 1970's.

Interestingly, Juan (by itself) sums to 312 (3+1+2 = 6). And Diego Sums to 33 = 6. All forms of the name Juan Diego sum is 6.

The number 6 is associated with order-law.^{Table 1}

- Symbolizes physical weakness, the evils of Satan and the manifestation of sin⁷.
- Man & Woman were created on the sixth day.
 - Men are appointed 6 days to labor.
 - Women are appointed to the labor of birth.
- A Hebrew slave was to serve six years and be released in the 7th year.
- Six years were appointed for the land to be sown and harvested.
- The dimension noted by Jesus w/r the Glorious Cross is 123[m] → 1+2+3 = 6
- The main stem of the Glorious cross has 6 such segments

The number 11 symbolizes a call to action or elections/decisions.^{Table 1}

- bring forth symbolize disorder, chaos and judgment⁷.
- Eleven acts set forth by the Almighty in Revelations 20:12-14, Then I saw the dead small and great standing before God. And books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which were written in the books. The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one according to his works. Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.
- $(x4) + (x4) + (x3) = 11$ stars on the cloak in alignment with Mary's heart/soul
- The gospel of John records eleven very special promises.⁷
 - A person can receive everlasting life by believing in the Son of God (John 3:16).
 - A person can have eternal life by eating, spiritually, Jesus' body (John 6:54).
 - By following Jesus, you will not walk in darkness (John 8:12).
 - Those who continue in Jesus' word will be set free (John 8:31 - 32).
 - A person will truly be free if made so by Jesus (John 8:36).
 - God the Father will honor those who serve Christ (John 12:26).
 - Those who believe in Jesus will do greater deeds than he did (John 14:12).
 - Those who obey Christ's commands will receive the Holy Spirit (John 14:15 - 16).
 - Those who keep Jesus' commands will be loved by both him and God the Father (John 14:21).
 - Those who abide in Jesus will be fruitful (John 15:5).
 - Be a friend of Christ by obeying Gods commandments (John 15:14).
- There are eleven commandments, 1 thru 10 as given by Moses, plus one: John 13:34, Jesus said, "A new commandment I give you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another."

Placing the meaning/significance of numbers aside for a moment, it is also interesting to note that Juan was familiar with the Aztec way of life: The Aztec calendar is divided into five eras. The fifth and final age began about 535 years prior to the arrival of Cortes in/around 1519; thus, the final age began on/about 900 to 1100. Around this time, the mighty city known as Babylon vanished from the face of the earth; as noted in Revelations.

Luke 10:17-20, Then the seventy returned with joy saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name.” And He said to them, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. ... Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven.” Thus, Satan was thrown to the earth just prior to the crucifixion of Jesus. This is also referenced in Revelations 12:9.

Revelations 20:2, He laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. Thus, Satan was released around the year 1000 to 1500. Though this is speculation, the timeline seems reasonable.

It is fair to say that because the visitations of Our Lady of Guadalupe were made to Juan, an Aztec, that the Aztec writings have an emphasis in her communications. The Aztec’s were living closely with the Mayan’s, the Mayan writings should not be ignored either. Recalling also the significance of the Pleiades constellation and farming.

The ancient Mexicans counted their years by means of four signs combined with thirteen numbers, obtaining periods of 52 years, which are commonly known as Xiuhmolpilli, a popular but incorrect name; the correct Nahuatl word for this cycle is Xiuhnelpilli.¹²

December 21st, 2012 the Mayan calendar went to 13.0.0.0.0. The Aztec calendar was on solar year 1, day 4 of the 13th day-period. The 14th reed begins on March 26th, 2407 (14.0.0.0.0); representing solar year 5, day 3 of the 13th day-period of the Aztec calendar.

Unlike the Mayans, Aztecs did not make any definite predictions regarding the end of the world. However, they did believe that at the end of every 52-year cycle of their calendar, their “gods” could decide to destroy the Earth.

The Aztec calendar it is currently its 5th era; the Fifth Sun called four-Movement; it is rather confusing. The calendar is divided in four segments (similar to the four corners of the earth), North, South, East and West. The end of the 5th era would end thru earthquakes and all people will be eaten by sky monsters. The 4th era was death by water. The 3rd era was death by rain of fire. The 2nd era was death by wind and the 1st era was death by jaguar. Each era represents a time frame of history; similar to the 6 days God took to create the world in which we live.

B. Our Lady of Guadalupe Interpretation:

As with prayer the a to the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe are the hands, clasped in prayer. In Revelations 12 it is written: “His [Jesus] eyes were [like] a fiery flame, and on his head were many diadems. He had a name inscribed that no one knows except himself.” Through the eyes, the soul is seen; connecting to God thru prayer. A likely interpretation of the vision of our Lady of Guadalupe has Orion’s belt representing the Holy Trinity, the prayerful hands of our Lady/Mother representing the “fiery eye” of the soul, which lead to the fruitful constellation for planting-season, the rebirth of heaven and earth: All together, the promises of God, everlasting peace and joy, are for those who decide to keep his 11 commandments; guided by our Lords’ Sermon on the Mount.

II. Messages from the Past #2: Jesus' Sacred heart

Recorded history tells of many visions, four, in particular, are of interest; two with Our Mother Mary and two with Our Lord Jesus. After the vision of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Our Lord visited the blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque in 1673; to bring peace to Europe. And to let His Sacred Heart to be known and loved by men.⁸

Jesus appeared to the blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque on 27 December of 1673⁸; the first of 18 appearances. Jesus wanted to bring peace to France and let-known his Sacred Heart. The prophetic proclamation's by Jesus came true: Namely that if the King of France did not add the Sacred Heart to his Coat of Arms, his family reign would end. And so, with the beheadings of the king's progeny during the French revolution, the dynasty ended.

“My Divine Heart is so full of love for men, and for thee in particular, that being unable to contain within Itself the flames of Its ardent charity, It must needs spread them abroad by thy means. My Heart desires to manifest Itself to men, that they may be enriched with Its treasures which I discover to thee, and which contain graces of sanctification and salvation necessary to withdraw their souls from perdition. I have chosen thee, in spite of thy unworthiness and ignorance for the accomplishment of this great design, so that all may be done by Me.”⁸

Later, after meeting the Holy Trinity, her soul was “deep” with “joy and peace.” For he holds “treasures of love” for all mankind.

At one point during visits by Jesus the blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque recalled when she was making the Holy Hour, Our Lord told her that Satan had asked to tempt and try her by all sorts of contradictions, humiliations, and desolations, and that He had given permission for her to be subjected to all temptations except those of impurity⁸. The devil lost no time before tormenting her. She saw him more than once ... his eyes burning like coals, "Accursed that you are," he said, "if I can once hold you in my power, I will make you feel what I can do. I will injure you in every way." Our Lord promised that He would Himself protect her; she was to be particularly watchful over her exterior, as He would take care of her interior life.

An interesting aside: Satan's eyes are like burning coals while the eyes of Jesus are flames of fire (Rev). Time-and-again, Satan tries to copy/emulate Jesus.²³

- Jesus is the Holy Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit: While Satan is the unholy trinity, himself, the beast and the unholy prophet. God is a triune being (the Trinity), and Satan will form an "unholy trinity" at Armageddon (Rev 16:13).
- God has sent prophets to proclaim His word, and Satan sends false prophets (1 Jn 4:1)(Mt 24:11,24)(Mt 7:15-16).
- God gives us teachers to teach His word and Satan sends false teachers (2 Pet 2:1-3) (1 Tim 4:1-3)(2 Jn 1:9-11)(Mal 2:8-9)(Gal 1:6-9).
- Jesus is the "light" of the world (Jn 1:7-9)(Jn 8:12)(Lk 2:32)(Jn 12:35-36), and Satan appears as an "angel of light" (1 Pet 5:8).
- Satan takes God's word and twists its meaning to serve his purposes (Mt 4:1-11).
- Satan takes God's spiritual gifts (i.e. tongues and prophecy), and causes them to be misused to create confusion.
- Jesus instituted "communion," and Satan falsifies it (1 Cor 10:16-22).
- Matthew, 5: "But I say to you, do not swear at all; not by heaven, for it is God's throne."
 - "Nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King."
 - "Do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black."
 - "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one."
- Jesus has eyes of fire
- Satan has eyes that look like burning coals
- Jesus is called the "lion of Judah" (Rev 5:5)
 - One of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. The lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, has triumphed, enabling him to open the scroll with its seven seals."
 - Jesus has come to show us the way, the truth and the life; for the path to the light is narrow.
- Satan is compared to a "roaring lion" (1 Pet 5:8).
 - Be sober and vigilant. Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion looking for [someone] to devour
 - Satan destroys many, for the path to destruction is wide

If a soul can hear, if a soul can see then the deceptions dissolve and the truth is revealed. Satan lures, seduces the senses and devours a soul with hate and perversions. Jesus purifies the senses, bestowing joy and peace to all those who hear; to all those who see.

Thus, Mark, Chapter 4: Luke, Chapter 8.

- "Whoever has ears to hear ought to hear."

In the Luke 8:5-8, Jesus said: “A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, and when it came up, the plants withered because they had no moisture. Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the plants. Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up and yielded a crop, a hundred times more than was sown.” When he said this, he called out, “Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear.” He explained to his disciple what this meant. Luke 8:10-15, “... though seeing, they may not see; though hearing, they may not understand. This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God. Those along the path are the ones who hear, and then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. Those on the rocky ground are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but in the time of testing they fall away. The seed that fell among thorns stands for those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life's worries, riches and pleasures, and they do not mature. But the seed on good soil stands for those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it, and by persevering produce a crop.”

It is difficult when one is blind, for their heart is encrusted with hate or other perversions: It matters not how thick the layer is, for those who hate, and/or are perverse, will wither and feel the fires of the second death.

In Mathew Chapter 7 it is written:

- “By their fruits you will know them. Do people pick grapes from thorn-bushes, or figs from thistles?”
- “Just so, every good tree bears good fruit, and a rotten tree bears bad fruit.”
- “A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a rotten tree bear good fruit.”
- “Every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”
- “So, by their fruits you will know them.”

In the book of Revelations 3:10, Jesus said to John, “... I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world. To test those who dwell on the earth.” To paraphrase, “All will be tested.”

The readings show that Satan has no power to deceive the obedient. Satan can instill gluttony and other vices to weaken one's soul.

One day, the Blessed Margaret was faltering, curiosity seemed to be getting the better of her and Christ gently reproached her “If I would have thee in My presence deaf, blind, and dumb, ought thou not to be content?”

Jesus' second revelation (during the visits) in 1674, “Every Thursday I will make thee participate in the mortal sadness which it was My Will to feel in the Garden of Olives, and this sadness will reduce thee to an agony harder to bear than death. To bear Me company in the humble prayer which I offered to My Father in My anguish thou shalt rise between eleven o'clock and midnight, and remain prostrate with Me for an hour, thy face to the ground, so as to appease the divine anger of My Father by begging pardon for sinners, as well as to share, and in some way soften, the bitterness I felt in being at that time abandoned by My Apostles, an abandonment which obliged Me to reproach them with not having been able to watch one hour with Me. During this hour thou shalt do as I will teach thee. Now listen, my daughter, believe not lightly nor trust every spirit, for Satan is raging to deceive thee. Do nothing therefore without the approbation of those who guide thee, he will then be unable to deceive thee, for he has no power over the obedient.”⁸

Full with the festive meal of the Last Supper and the transcendent body and blood of Christ, the apostles could not pray one hour in the garden with our Lord. Our Lord did not show his torment; for 30 years he knew all, and did not waver. Though they did not know of his torment, tis a bitter pill indeed when friends abandoned a friend in a time of need.

At times, during the visitations, Jesus explains that he is hurt by those who take communion and do not keep their body a temple of light. A virtuous home, with humility; for those with pride pierce him. The pain he feels is magnified when those whom have been consecrated to him falter. At one point, Jesus visited her after Holy Communion and he explained that five souls consecrated to him made him suffer greatly: Appearing to her as the Ecce Homo, Jesus scourged and crowned with thorns. One of them was ill-disposed to receive him, a faithless spouse, causing 19 thorns to pierce Jesus' brain; which she removed with 19 acts of humility. Though no act of humility by a mortal compare to that of our Lord becoming the Word Incarnate, eventually, she was able to remove the thorns. Among other things, the writings show that perversions of virtue cause torment our loving Lord.

“This, He said to me, ‘I feel more deeply than all that I suffered in My Passion. If they would return Me love for love, I should think but little of all that I have suffered for them, and should wish, if it were possible, to suffer still more. But instead of love I meet with coldness and repulses on every side in return for all My eagerness to do them good. Do thou, at least, console Me, by supplying for their ingratitude as far as thou art able.’”⁸

“I cannot explain what took place except that the Eternal Father presented me with a cross beset with thorns and surrounded with all the instruments of the Passion, saying: “See, My daughter, I make thee the same present as I made to My Beloved Son. And I, said Jesus Christ, wish to attach thee to it as I Myself was attached, and I will keep thee faithful company. The Third adorable Person, Who is Love, would, He told me, Himself consume and purify me thereon.”⁸

In 1674 the “Divine Heart was represented to me [Sister] as on a throne of fire and flames shedding rays of light on every side, brighter than the sun and transparent as crystal. The Wound which He had received on the Cross was clearly visible. A crown of thorns encircled the Divine Heart and It was surmounted by a cross. ... He assured me that He took special pleasure in being honoured under the representation of the Heart of flesh, and that He desired such representations to become public, so that the hard hearts of men might thereby be touched. He promised me that He would pour forth the gifts of His love abundantly on all those who should honour His Heart and that wherever the image of His Heart should be exposed for special veneration it would draw down every sort of blessing.”⁸

The Sister writes: “The Blessed Virgin, my kind Mother, favoured me with her presence. She caressed me tenderly, and after conversing a long time with me, she said: ‘Let the health which I bestow on thee at the Will of my Son encourage thee, my daughter. Thou hast yet a long and painful way to go. Thou wilt always be upon the cross, pierced with nails and thorns and torn with scourges. But fear nothing; I promise thee my protection and I will never forsake thee.’”⁸

Later in 1678, she thought back to this time (1674) “... of which I am so unworthy, of allowing me to repose on His Breast with the beloved Disciple, and of giving me His Heart, His Cross and His love. His Heart to be my refuge and my haven of rest amid the tempests of this stormy sea; His Cross to be my throne of glory, in which I was not only to glory but to rejoice, since there is no good for me but Jesus, His Cross and His love; His love to purify, consume, and transform me wholly into Himself.”⁸

Another visitation in 1675, “Then showing me His Divine Heart, He said: ‘Behold this Heart which has so loved men, that It has spared nothing, even to exhausting and consuming Itself to prove to them Its love. In return, I receive from the greater number nothing but ingratitude, contempt, irreverence, sacrilege, and coldness in this Sacrament of My love. But what I feel still more is that there are hearts consecrated to Me who use Me thus. Therefore I ask of thee that the First Friday after the Octave of the Blessed Sacrament shall be kept as a special Feast in honour of My Heart, to make reparation for all the indignities offered to It, and as a Communion day in order to atone for the unworthy treatment It has received when exposed upon the alters’” Jesus continued, “I also promise that My Heart shall shed in abundance the influence of Its divine love on all those who shall thus honour It or cause It to be so honoured.”⁸

The Sister cast herself at his feet and Jesus said:

“Dost thou not know that I choose the weakest subjects to confound the strong,
and that My power is most frequently shown in those who are humble and poor of spirit,
so that they can attribute nothing to themselves?”⁸

The visitations ended and in 1690 at the age of 43 she died: Her unblemished/incorrupt body is on display at the chapel of the apparitions, located at the visitation monastery in Paray-le-Monial. The French revolution began in 1789 and the family reign ended. The blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque was beatified 1864. An interesting and unique note to consider, is that “Mary” was her 2nd name and Madeleine (the French variant of the Hebrew name Magdalene) was Mrs. Aumont 1st: Putting the names together (reversed) yields Mary Magdalene, who was the first person to see the resurrected Jesus. It took over 70 years for the church to recognize her visions and almost 200 years to beatify her soul.

The visitations of our Lord to Sister Margaret Mary Alacoque did succeed in letting the world know of the pains of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Though peace and joy did not see France, the promises of the Sacred Heart continue:

- That those devoted to His Sacred Heart should never perish
- He would abundantly bless the places where the image of His Sacred Heart should be exposed, and that by this means He would bring together the members of disunited families.
- That He would protect all in need.
- That He would pour out the sweetness of His love on all the Communities where the image of His Heart should be honoured;
 - and that if the members had fallen away by sin, He would shield them from the just anger of God by giving them the grace of repentance.

What to do:

- Place a portrait of the Sacred Heart, in whatever form, in a prominent location within a home and Satan will have no power there.
- After receiving communion, go home, in front of the portrait and place your left hand on your heart; then your right hand atop your left.
- At special times of need, place a (lit) holy candle next to the portrait and pray.
- Pray every day
- Each time passing the portrait give “Praise and Glory to God!”

On the surface, the messages of the Sacred Heart and Our Lady of Guadalupe seem to have no connection. The fourth visitation by Jesus in the 1970’s links them all together. Messages 1 & 2 took hundreds of years for the church and the powerful, to recognize.

III. Messages of the Past #3: The Secrets of Fatima

The visitations in the 1670’s by Our Lord was followed by Our Mother Mary in Fatima Portugal on the 13th of May 1917.⁹ “It was a Lady dressed all in white (crystal),” Lucia records, “more brilliant than the sun, shedding rays of light, clear and stronger than a crystal glass filled with the most sparkling water, pierced by the burning rays of the sun:” With the euphoria of excellence, not of a burning sun. During the apparitions, Lucia’s two friends were with her; Francisco and Jacinta. While all three were able to see Mother Mary, Lucia and Jacinta were the only two able to hear Her.¹⁰ (It is recommended that the reader take some time and read/study each account). All four visitations contain details that set each one apart.

At the beginning of the visitations, Lucia, being beaten by her mother and ridiculed by her sisters did not want to go to the 3rd meeting:^{9,10} The morning of the 3rd meeting, she awoke and felt compelled to go. The three children suffered for the sake of sinners. Recalling that the blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque suffered for the sake of sinners, each did so willingly. Mother Mary showed the youngsters a vision of hell and secrets of which Lucia did not reveal until later.

On the third visitation, Our Lady said, “You have seen Hell, where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them God wants to establish throughout the world the devotion to My Immaculate Heart. If people will do what I tell you, many souls will be saved, and there will be peace. The war is going to end. But if they do not stop offending God, another and worse war will break out in the reign of Pius XI. When you see a night illumined by an unknown light, know that it is the great sign that God gives you, that He is going to punish the world for its crimes by means of war, hunger, persecution of the Church and of the Holy Father. To forestall this, I shall come to ask for the Consecration of Russia to My Immaculate Heart and the Communion of Reparation on the First Saturdays. If they heed My requests, Russia will be converted, and there will be peace. If not, she shall spread her errors throughout the world, promoting wars and persecutions of the Church; the good will be martyred, the Holy Father will have much to suffer, various nations will be annihilated; in the end, My Immaculate Heart shall triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to Me, which will be converted, and sometime of peace will be given to the world.”

At one point during this time, our Mother Mary said “Priests must be pure, very pure. They should not busy themselves with anything except what concerns the Church and souls. The disobedience of priests and religious to their superiors and to the Holy Father gravely displeases Our Lord.” Time and again, priests/bishops/Popes have busied themselves with worldly events; thus, the displeasure must run deep. Just as the Bishop (responsible for Dozule) in France ignored what was told to him, so too have many of the religious busied themselves with other things.

The vision of Fatima is unique, in that a rather detailed memoir was written; giving an insightful backstory to their lives. The visitation by Our Mother in October of 1917 was accompanied by our Lord Jesus and Saint Joseph; who blessed the thousands in attendance. After the blessing, the event known as “The Miracle of the Sun” took place. The sun “bounced” around: To paraphrase, it was “amazing” ... “unreal.” Over time many have reported on this miracle and overlooked a physical aspect of the event; the heavy rain. It was reported that it was raining heavily and suddenly the rain stopped; then “The Miracle of the Sun” took place; taking several minutes to complete. After the miracle, those in attendance noticed their clothes were dry and the ground was dry; after hours of being soaked with rain. This is the miracle within “The Miracle of the Sun.”

About one week after “The Miracle of the Sun” the communist revolution began in Russia. This revolution spread fear and hate; Russia spread her error throughout the world. Countless battles took place between 1917 and 1984; and communism spread thru Vietnam and all of China. Today, the United States is under threat by Communism/Marxism; a government without freedom.

In the end, Pope Pius XI (the high bishop) did not Consecrate Russia to Our Lady’s Immaculate Heart and all of Europe was “engulfed” in the “Fatima Northern Lights;” causing fear as it was seen by many as a bad omen. Shortly after the spectacular light show of January 25th 1938, World War II broke-out.

In 1984, Lucia said that Pope John Paul II’s Consecration to Our Lady’s Immaculate Heart was accepted: The Pope only did this after being shot a couple of years earlier. Pope John Paul II attributes his survival to Mother Mary’s actions; by diverting the bullet. The bullet is now encrusted in Mary’s crown; in the statue at Fatima. Since 1917, Fatima Portugal as transformed from a small chapel to a large complex, filled with visitors from around the world: So too, the Glorious Cross would transform Dozule.

IV. Messages of the Past #4: The Glorious Cross

The visitation by Our Mother in Fatima was followed by an apparition of the Glorious Cross on Holy Tuesday, March 28th 1972: “The arms and the top of the Cross were equal, the Cross was enormous - straight, impressive, wonderful, dazzling but easy to look at and lit up the whole horizon.” Madeleine could not fully explain the splendor she witnessed. She was given the task to “make known the cross.”¹ In the 2nd apparition she heard a voice say “Penitence, penitence, it is time to save all these sinners who do not love Jesus.” The 3rd apparition of the Glorious Cross she was asked to “... tell the priest to erect in this place the Glorious Cross, and at its foot a sanctuary. Everyone will come here to repent and to find Peace and Joy.” During the 6th apparition of the Glorious Cross she was asked: “Would you be so kind as to tell the Bishop that the priest must not leave his parish before carrying out the task which is asked of him.” During the 7th apparition, in December of 1972, of the Glorious Cross, Jesus revealed himself along with the Glorious Cross, saying “Don't be afraid, I am Jesus of Nazareth, the Risen Son of Man... Be so good as to repeat this: O sorte nupta prospera Magdalena ! » « Annuntiate virtutes ejus qui vos de tenebris vocavit in admirabile Lumen Suum. (Latin for: Ô Madeleine, whom a happy fate has made a spouse ! Proclaim the wonders of Him who has called you from shadows to His marvelous light.)” The introduction of Our Lord to Madeleine was beyond words.

On June 12th, 1973, Madeleine, the Sisters and the Priest had just finished recitation of the rosary when they were comforted by a breeze and Our Lord Jesus appeared, where the tabernacle was. Jesus asked Madeleine to repeat what he said:¹

- “I am the First and the Last and the Living One, and All that has been given you: I am Love, Peace, Joy, Resurrection and Life. Kiss the people present here for love and out of charity for your neighbour.”
- (Latin): “Attendite quod in aure auditis, praedicate super tecta. Per te, Magdalena, civitas Dozulea decorabitur per Sanctam Crucem et aedificat Sanctuarium Domino in monte ejus. Terribilis est locus iste.”
 - Listen ! What you hear in your ear, proclaim it from the housetops. Through you, Madeleine, the city of Dozulé will be adorned by the Holy Cross, and it will build a sanctuary to the Lord on His hill. How awesome is this place!
- “Kiss the ground three times in penitence for Iniquity.”
- “Make haste to tell the world what you have seen and heard in My Name. Order the Bishop to announce My Law, so that the Glorious Cross may be raised and the Sanctuary of Reconciliation be built on the precise spot where Madeleine has seen it six times, then all come to it in procession.”

Our Lord Jesus spoke in Latin and the Priest knew what he spoke. The Priest asked her, “how do you know those words?”

In September of 1973 Jesus teaches a new, daily, prayer:¹

- “Mercy, my God, on those who blaspheme You: forgive them, they know not what they do.
- Mercy, my God, for the scandal of the world: deliver them from the spirit of Satan,
- Mercy, my God, on those who run away from You: give them appreciation for the Holy Eucharist.
- He who does the will of my Father and who eats this Bread will live forever in this Light...
- Mercy, my God, on those who will come repentant to the Glorious Cross: may they find there Peace and Joy in God Our Saviour.

- Mercy, my God, so that your Kingdom may come, but save souls, there is still time... for the time is drawing near, see, I am coming.
- Amen.
- Come, Lord Jesus.
- followed by a decade of the rosary”

In March of 1975 Our Lord Jesus said “... Jesus of Nazareth has triumphed over death, that His Reign is eternal, and that He is coming to conquer the world and time.”¹ This phrase has been added, by some, to the beginning of the daily prayer.

The 14th visitation, March of 1974, of Our Lord Jesus asked her to repeat this to those present (her Priest, 3 Sitters and 4 Ladies), (Latin Translation)¹

- “Behold Him whose Name is of eternal Reign. Who sees Me sees My Father. Madeleine! Announce the marvels of Him who has called you from darkness into His admirable Light. Don't be afraid, bless the Lord and sing to Him.”
- Thence forth he spoke in French, saying, “.... Today Jesus of Nazareth, the Risen Son of Man, is visiting me for the eighth time. His hands, His face shine like the sun, His clothes are brilliantly white, His look is Love and Kindness. Love your neighbor as I love you; your look should be love and kindness for each one of you. Kiss someone present with love and charity.
- ... Truly I say to you, today it is the same. Rejoice, because the time is near when the Son of Man will come back in glory. Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord without ceasing, may your joy be known to all men because of the words you have just heard, because of My Name.”
- “Tell the Church that she must renew her message of PEACE to the whole world, because the hour is grave. Satan is directing the world, he seduces minds, makes them capable of destroying humanity in a few moments. If humanity does not resist him, I shall give him leave to act, and it will be a catastrophe, such as has not been since the Deluge, and this will be before the end of the century. All those who come to repent at the foot of the Glorious Cross will be saved. Satan will be destroyed; thereafter it will be only Peace and Joy.”

The 15th visitation defines the size of the Glorious Cross, comparable to Jerusalem; and the pool of faith, “not for drinking:”¹

- “The Glorious Cross must be raised on the high mound, nearest to the limit of the Dozulé territory, at the exact spot where there is a fruit tree, The Tree of Sin, because the Glorious Cross will liberate from all sin. Its arms must extend to the East and the West.
- Each arm must measure 123 metres and its height be six times as much. It is from the radius of 123 metres, space occupied by the Cross, that the 100 metres must be measured. Then, dig a pool 2.00 x 1.50 metres and 1 metre deep. Make an enclosure. Water will well up.”
- The Cross is defined in eight segments of 123[m]; 6 of which are the main stem
- The numbers 123 → 1 + 2 + 3 = 6; the same value for Juan Diego

It was during this visitation where Jesus said:

- “Vos amici mei estis si feceritis quae Ego praecipio vobis, dixit Dominus
 - You are My friends if you do what I command you, says the Lord.”
- “Put your left hand on your heart and the right hand over it.”

Though numbers permeate the bible and are written in the stars, Mother Mary and Lord Jesus are also prophetic: In the 17th apparition, Friday May 31st 1974 Jesus said, “God reproaches priests for their slowness in accomplishing their task and for their incredulity. God has asked them to tell the world the marvels of Him who called Madeleine from darkness to His admirable Light, for the Glorious Cross will adorn the town of Dozulé. They have not done this at all. That is the reason for the lack of water in the pool. A calamitous drought will fall on the entire world. Let priests attentively read the Message and scrupulously respect what has been asked of them.”¹

In the 21st apparition, Jesus said, “... FOR A UNIVERSAL CHANGE IS NEAR, such as has never been from the beginning of the world until this day, and will never be again. When the calamitous drought already foretold, falls upon the world, only the pool God has caused to be dug will hold water, not for drinking, but for you to wash as a sign of purification. And you will all come and repent at the foot of the Glorious Cross, which God is asking the Church to raise.”¹

Daniel 9:14, Therefore the Lord has kept the calamity in store and brought it on us; for the Lord our God is righteous with respect to all His deeds which He has done, but we have not obeyed His voice.

During the 39th visitation by Our Lord, December 28, 1975:¹

- As each time, with a slow movement of His left Hand, He revealed His Heart. At once red and white rays burst forth; He stretched out His right Hand of which the palm was visible: Madeleine repeated what Jesus dictated:
- “As soon as they know My Message, I will pour out the rays of My grace on pagans and all those who do not know Me, yet.”
- Then in prayer with Madeleine:
 - Our Father
 - (x3) Hail Mary’s
 - “By your sorrowful Passion, Lord, have mercy on us and on the whole world.”
 - “Glory to God in the highest. Peace and Joy on earth to the men He loves.”
 - “Make the sign of the Cross”

The 42nd visitation Jesus asked Madeleine to address the local magistrate: “In three days go and tell the magistrate of this town that Jesus of Nazareth has triumphed over death, that His Reign is eternal and that He is coming to conquer the world and time. If he asks who sent you, say that it is Jesus of Nazareth, the Risen Son of Man. Take him the Message; let him get to know it. Tell him that God entrusts him to give back to the Church the land of which she must become the owner.”¹

The 44th visitation Jesus promised, January of 1976: “I promise all souls who come repentant to the foot of the Glorious Cross, and who say every day the prayer that I have taught them, that in this life Satan will have no more power over them, and that after a long period of sinfulness, in an instant they will become pure and will be children of God forever. My father, whose Kindness is infinite, wants to save the humanity which is at the edge of the abyss. You must prepare yourselves through this ultimate Message.”¹

The final visitation, Friday, October of 1978, Jesus said:

- “But when this Cross will be raised from the ground, then you will see Me, for at that moment I shall reveal to the Churches the mysteries written in BOOK OF LIFE which has just been opened. Tell the Bishop what you have just seen and heard.”
- “In spite of My supplications, do not be anxious, you possess a wisdom that no one else down here possesses; your calm and your silence are the visible signs of My Word in this world where action and boldness dominate. May your face always reflect the Invisible Presence. I tell you, obey your Superior, He alone is responsible on this earth for doing the Will of My Father, but woe to the world in peril, for he is delaying.”¹

The date of final visitation by Our Lord on October (1+2+3 =) 6th of 1978 bears a striking similarity to the final visitation by Our Mother, in Fatima; which was on October 13th of 1917. The contrasts, perhaps, are more revealing.

- The miracle/s of Fatima verses an indifference by Priests/Bishops
- The sacrifices/pain for sinners verses the duty/obligation of Priests/Bishops
- Prophetic proclamations of war verses people who do not hear
- Prophetic proclamations of thirst verses people who do not understand
- The crowd of 70,000+ that gathered to see the miracle verses Madeleine with the word/s of God to her priest and whomever was nearby

A. Numbers – II:

Within each visitation there are numbers which have meaning. The visitation by Our Lord on 28th of March, 1975 (Good Friday): Jesus said, “Have written out three hundred and twenty times the prayer I taught you...”

- $(320)/(8) = 40 = 5 * 2^3$; $(5+2+2+2=11)$
- 2 conveys the meaning of a union, division or the verification of facts by witnesses⁷
- The number 5 symbolizes God's grace, goodness and favor toward humans⁷
- 8 is the number most associated with rebirth/born-again⁷
- 11 is the number associated with judgement⁷
- 40 symbolizes a period of testing⁷

Note: The repetition is done for convince for the reader, refer to “Numbers – I” for more details on values 3, 4, 7, 8 & 11.

As Jesus used the bridging language of Latin with in Dozule, France, it will also be used to obtain the numbers of names.

- The Latin to Hebrew translation of Aumont is 101
- Signifying good times and change
- Psalm 101 notes mercy, judgement and the destruction of evil.

A small study is in order to determine if Latin is the proper bridging language. Many are familiar with Rev 18: “... for it is a human number. His number is six hundred and sixty-six.” In 1908 Gregory–Aland published text from the 3rd century, 225-275AD was found in Oxyrhynchus, Egypt.²⁸ This Greek text was not translated/published until recently (~2005); showing the number of the beast as 616. This is the oldest text referring to the number of the beast.

Another Codex was found, known prior to the translation of the 3rd century text, the Ephraemi Rescriptus. It has 616 written in full: ἑξάκóσιοι δέκα ἕξ, hexakosioi deka hex (lit. "six hundred and sixteen"). This comes from Hoskier, Herman C. (1929). Concerning the Text of the Apocalypse: A complete conspectus of all authorities.²⁹

It is unclear why, for centuries, people have used Greek as the bridging language to Hebrew. For centuries the number of the beast was defined as 666. Without a specific bridging language, mathematically, almost any name can sum to 666. With a specific bridging language, the numbers have definition and specification; thus, there is only "one" value.

It is thought that the apostle John most likely wrote "Revelations" during the reign of Emperor Domitianus, 81-96AD. John was exiled to Patmos in/about 95AD. Emperor Caesar Domitianus Avgvstvs Germanicvs was a ruthless emperor, said to be "almost as bad as Nero." Though many variants of Caesar Domitianus Augustus Germanicus exist on coins of the time it is difficult to conclude that the Caesar, during John's visions, is the beast. The many variants that have been tried do not sum to 616 or 666: Emperor Domitianus, sums up to 555.

The name people used to refer to Nero Claudius Caesar Augustus Germanicus, the emperor of Rome in 58-68AD was Emperor Nero: Found in Arabic text.¹⁵ Emperor Nero was/is noted as the most horrific emperor in Roman history: "Suetonius and Cassius Dio writes that Nero sang the "Sack of Ilium" in stage costume while the city burned."³⁰ It is also written that Emperor Nero kicked his wife to death before she could give birth.

- The name "Emperor Nero" with the bridging language of Greek sums up to 666.
- The name Muhammad also adds up to 666 using Greek as the bridging language.
- Utilizing Latin as the bridging language Muhammad adds up to 98.
- The name "Emperor Nero" with the bridging language of Latin sums up to 616.

A possible reason for the mix-up in numbers is a translation error. Between Greek, Arabic and Hebrew a slight miss-step gives a new meaning to the phrase. At the time of John the apostle, "Greek was the language of the scholars."³¹ A slight mis-step in the middle character changes the value from 616 to 666. It is interesting to note that the scholars used Greek while Jesus used Latin. At the time Jesus was alive, Latin was a "small" language. As Jesus stated, he confounds the strong by speaking thru the humble and poor in spirit.

Numerical Summations with respect to God:

- Jesus translated from Greek to Hebrew yields 888
 - $2^3 \times 3 \times 37$
 - Sum₂ is 24 (8 + 8 + 8)
 - Sum₃ is 46 (2 + 2 + 2 + 3 + 37)
- Jesus, translated from Latin to Hebrew is 521
 - A prime number, 3-digits (I I I) into 1, the Holy Singularity/Trinity (א)
 - Sum₂ is 8 (5 + 2 + 1)
 - Sum₃ is 523
- Emmanuel, translated from Greek to Hebrew is 197
 - A prime number, 3-digits (I I I) into 1, the Holy Singularity/Trinity (א)
 - Sum₂ is 17 (1 + 9 + 7)
 - Sum₃ is 198
- Emmanuel, translated from Latin to Hebrew is 197
 - A prime number, 3-digits (I I I) into 1, the Holy Singularity/Trinity (א)
 - Sum₂ is 17 (1 + 9 + 7)
 - Sum₃ is 198
- Jesus means “God with us”
- Emmanuel means “God with us”
- “God with us” translated from Greek to Hebrew sums to 2430
 - $2 + 4 + 3 = 9$ (Sum₂ is 9)
 - $2 \times 3^5 \times 5$ (Sum₃ is 22)
 - Psalm 22: “My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? ...”
- “God with us” translated from Latin to Hebrew sums to 869
 - 8-(rebirth) + 6-(law/order) + 9-(revelation) = 23 (Sum₂ is 23)
 - 11×79 (Sum₃ is 90)
 - Psalm 23: “The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. ...”

Note: The Hebrew character “Aleph” or “א” is “one,” meaning “God.”¹⁵⁴

The values of Our Lord with Greek or Latin as the bridging language, have significance as it relates to theology, numbers and their meaning. Yielding rather amazing results with either translation.

- The Greek/Hebrew translations:
 - Psalm 22 was spoken by Jesus at his last moments upon the cross.
 - Emmanuel is the same with Latin or Greek
 - Jesus sums to 46, the number of angels (stars) on the cloak of Our Lady of Guadalupe
- The Latin/Hebrew translations
 - Psalm 23 follows Psalm 22: “The Lord is my Sheppard...”
 - Emmanuel is the same with Latin or Greek
 - The value of Jesus is a prime number, so too is Emmanuel
 - Whose sum is 8

The odds of either of these numerical events occurring in succession are small. The odds are even smaller when examining their similarities within the successions; Psalm 22 then Psalm 23 and so on. The item that tips the scale are the two prime values; found only in the Latin/Hebrew translations: God is (after all) 3 beings in 1. In the Latin/Hebrew translation the numbers signify God with us, Rebirth and Complete Victory; by the transcendent singularity.

- Now comparing the values of Satan, who mimics Jesus, with that of God:
 - 666
 - $2 \times 3^2 \times 37$ (sum₂ = 45) has no relevancy
 - $6 + 6 + 6$ (sums₃ = 18) has no relevancy
 - 2 has no relevancy
 - 3 is within the Greek/Hebrew translation of Jesus
 - 9 is the sum₂ of the Greek/Hebrew translation of “God with us”
 - 37 has no relevancy
 - 616
 - $2^3 \times 7 \times 11$ (sum₂ = 24) found in the Greek/Hebrew translation for Jesus
 - $6 + 1 + 6$ sums₃ to 13 (Jesus + Apostles)
 - $6 + 1 + 6$ sums₃ to 13, the number of the Messiah (Hebrew)
 - 616 is divisible by 7 which is a part of Emmanuel
 - 616 is divisible by 8 which is the sum of Jesus
 - 616 is divisible by 11 which is in “God with us” (Latin/Hebrew)

Jesus and Emmanuel are prime numbers plus their subsequent sums/values have significant meaning/s. Thus, the two sets of ancient texts from different sources plus the above numerical study show that the value for the beast is 616; and the bridging language is Latin.

One last thought on the number of Satan: Emperor Nero’s number is 616 and he died by assassination or assisted suicide at the age of 30. Jesus was likely crucified between 30 and 33 years of age. Again, Satan tries to copy Jesus by dying at the age of 30; by another’s hand.

Returning to the visitations of the 1970’s, Jesus remarked (during the 9th visit) “... and the Lord's servant will have spoken a language which is foreign to her.” As Jesus utilized the humble Latin language to bridge the gap in Dozule, so too should the scholars.

Aside: Latin was the bridging language throughout Europe and somewhat in the middle east and Africa; the “world” at that time (5th century). The oldest example of Latin extant, dates to the 7th century BC.²⁷

The meaning of the figures:^{Table 1, 7, 13, 16}

- The number 1 is only divisible by itself: The Holy Trinity (Singularity) God.
 - It is independent of any other numerals yet composes them all.
 - Jesus, by his singular sacrifice, has made possible the forgiveness of all our sins.
 - Adam was the first human.
 - He is the one Mediator and Shepherd (1Timothy 2:5; John 10:16)
 - The Old and New Testaments have an incredible unity between them. More than 1/3rd of the New Testament is composed of Old Testament quotes.
 - The first of the ten commandments, on which all others are founded and without which is chaos, destruction and death, is "Worship no god but me" (Exodus 20:3).
 - It symbolizes in the Bible the unity and primacy, and the oneness of the Godhead. What is known as the Shema (or Shema Yisrael), a quote of verse four in Deuteronomy 6:4 that is often used in Jewish prayer services, attests to this fact.
 - Jesus is the First, the Alpha and the Omega (Revelations)
 - The apostle Peter tells us bluntly that it is through the name of Jesus Christ and him alone that a person can receive salvation and live forever (Acts 4:10 - 12).
 - The Transcendent Singularity
- The number 2 is associated with the Mother, the house of creation
 - Conveys the meaning of a union, division or the verification of facts by witnesses.
 - A man and woman, though two in number, are made one in marriage (Genesis 2:23 - 24).
 - The union between Christ and the church (see 1Corinthians 12)
 - The first man, Adam, sinned and brought death and destruction into the world. Jesus, however, as the second (or last) Adam brings the hope of the resurrection and eternal life (1Corinthians 15:21 - 22, 45 - 49)
 - Those who ultimately refuse to repent and obey God will be put to death forever by being thrown into the lake of fire, which is called the second death (Revelation 21:8)
 - At the minimum, the testimony of at least 2 people were needed in the Old Testament to convict someone of a crime or sin. The validity of this teaching of 2 people needed was confirmed by the Apostle Paul (1Timothy 5:19, Titus 3:10)
 - In the End Time, two witnesses will appear on the world scene to testify and uphold the truth of God against the Beast and the False Prophet (see Revelation 11)
 - Jesus sent the disciples out in groups of 2 so that they could not only testify about his teachings and miracles, but also be witnesses of those who accepted or rejected the gospel (Mark 6:7 - 13)
 - The Old Covenant was based on physical blessings for obedience while the New is based on those that are spiritual
 - In the Old Testament physical circumcision was required in order to be considered part of God's people, while the New requires circumcision of the heart.
 - During Creation week God made two great lights, one to rule the day (sun) and a lesser one to rule the night (moon - Genesis 1:16)
 - Two is the number of Eve

- Two angels sat where the body of Jesus had lain; “and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet.” John 20:12
- Jesus multiplied (five loaves of barely) and two fish to feed 5,000 (Matthew 14:17).
- $(2^3) = 8$ (The value for Jesus)
- Yin & Yang, Good & Bad: The eternal struggle (soon to be at an end)
- The number 5 is symbolized by life and the covenants.
 - Symbolizes God's grace, goodness and favor toward humans
 - Five is the number of grace, and multiplied by itself, which is 25, is 'grace upon grace' (John 1:16)
 - The Ten Commandments contains two sets of 5 commandments
 - The first five commandments are related to our treatment and relationship with God
 - The last five concern our relationship with others humans
 - There are 5 primary types of offerings God commanded Israel to bring to him. They are the Burnt Offering (Leviticus 1; 8:18 - 21; 16:24), Sin (Leviticus 4; 16:3 - 22), Trespass (Leviticus 5:14 - 19; 6:1 - 7; 7:1 - 6), Grain (Leviticus 2) and Peace Offering (Leviticus 3; 7:11- 34).
 - The Book of Psalms is divided into 5 major sections
 - Section 1 (Psalm 1 to 41) refers to the Passover.
 - Israel's beginning, and the start of the God's plan of salvation that centers around Christ.
 - Section 2 (42 to 72) sings about a unified Israel in the land and pictures the creation of the New Testament Church.
 - Section 3 of 5 (73 to 89) bemoans the destruction of both God's Temple and Jerusalem. This section also hints at prophecies regarding the End Time Great Tribulation.
 - Section 4 (90 to 106) rejoices over the 1,000 reign of Jesus and shows Israel gathered again.
 - Section 5 (107 to 150) pictures a time when Judah (representing all Israel) shall again be delivered.
 - The 4 Gospels plus Acts equals five books which, as a set, can be designated as "the New Testament Pentateuch." They reveal Jesus' teachings concerning the Law and the Prophets.
 - Jesus multiplied five loaves of barely (& two fish) to feed 5,000 (Matthew 14:17).
 - The 'tabernacle in the wilderness' profoundly reflects God's grace in its use of the number 5. This tabernacle, whose design was given directly by God, contained:
 - Five curtains (Exodus 26:3)
 - Five bars (Exodus 26:26 - 27)
 - Five pillars and five sockets (Exodus 26:37)
 - An altar made of wood that was five cubits long and five cubits wide (Exodus 27:1).
 - The height of the court within the tabernacle was five cubits (Exodus 27:18).
 - The Holy anointing oil (Exodus 30:23 - 25), the ingredients of which were given directly by God, was used to consecrate the furniture of the tabernacle. It was comprised of 5 parts, for it was a revelation of pure grace. The proportion of spices used in making the oil were a multiple of five, which then had a Hin of olive oil added to it.

- Pure Myrrh, 500 shekels
- Sweet cinnamon, 250 shekels
- Sweet calamus, 250 shekels
- Cassia, 500 shekels
 - Note: This is an excellent wood sealant with a nice aroma
- There are 5 periods in the Aztec calendar; where the 5th has no end-time.
- Five is the number of the human: The number five symbolizes the four limbs and the head that controls the limbs.
- The number 9 is associated with revelations, epiphanies.
 - Symbolizes divine completeness or conveys the meaning of finality.
 - The number of completion and fulfillment.
 - Christ died at the 9th hour of the day to make the way of salvation open to everyone.
 - The Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) is the only one of God's annual Feast days of worship that requires believers to fast for one day. This special day, considered by many Jews to be the holiest of the year, begins at sunset on day 9 of the seventh Hebrew month (Leviticus 23:32).
 - Represents the fruits of God's Holy Spirit, which are Faithfulness, Gentleness, Goodness, Joy, Kindness, Long suffering, Love, Peace and Self-control (Galatians 5:22 - 23).
 - It was at the 9th hour of the day that a Roman Centurion named Cornelius was told, in a vision, to contact the apostle Peter. Cornelius would eventually be baptized and receive God's spirit, becoming the first recorded Gentile convert to Christianity (Acts 10).
- The number 13 is the Lord of Lords, the King of Kings, the Messiah; Lord Jesus
 - The number for Jesus and his Apostles
 - Christ chose twelve men to bear witness to what he did and to spread the good news of the gospel to the entire world.
 - It is the median number, between 1 – God and 22 – Judgement/End
 - Aztec had 13 numbers
 - $1 + 3 = 4$ (Sum₃ for creation)
 - Psalm 13: “How Long, Lord? Will you utterly forget me? ... I will sing to the Lord, for he has dealt bountifully with me!”
 - Thought to be a Lucky number among many of the religious
 - Unlucky relations began during/after the 17th century³³
 - Thru various readings, Friday the 13th is thought to be a favorite of Jesus
 - Perhaps Satan spread lies about 13
 - 12 Tribes and 1 Tabernacle³⁴
 - 13 Tribes of Israel³⁴
 - There are 13 Gifts of the Spirit listed in D&C (Doctrine & Covenants) 46
 - The 13th is the gift of Eternal Life.³⁴

Table 1: Jesus and the Number 13³⁴

13th Letter Messiah is the 13th Letter of the modified Hebrew Alphabet used by Joseph Smith. It is a timeline of the earth – with God as #1 and judgment at the end as #22. Messiah came in the meridian or “middle” of this alphabet of time - #13.

Gematria	Hebrew Letter	Meaning/Graphic	Gematria	Hebrew Letter	Meaning/Graphic

10	Yod Y	Spirit [perfection]	21 (300)	Shin S, Sh	Womb
11 (20)	Kaph K	Palm [call and election]	22 (400)	Tav T, Th	Judgment [end]Joseph

- The number 22 is associated with judgement.
 - Perhaps 22 Angels assigned to the 22 creations of God during the first 6 days of Creation are preparing for judgement day (Interpretations thru Rev).
 - In the beginning God created Heaven and earth. (Gen)
 - The earth was formless and void
 - God moved upon the face of the waters; He made plans, He effortlessly m'rahaphet (Hebrew for stir/flutter) over His formless creation.⁴¹
 - God said let there be light. Then he divided the light into day and night.
 - And God said, let there be a firmament (sky/expanse): God called the firmament heaven.
 - God said... and let dry land appear.
 - God said ... grass, the herb yielding seed and the fruit tree ...
 - God said ... lights in the firmament (not stars) ... signs for seasons, for days and for years.
 - God made two great lights (sun and moon) ... He made the stars also. (x3)
 - God said ... bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly ...
 - And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind ...
 - ... God made man and woman and is dominion over the fish ... fowl ... cattle ... over every creepy thing ...
 - ... be fruitful and multiply
 - Twenty and two meta/physical “universal things” were created.
 - There are 22 letters in the Hebrew alphabet: These letters are used for the composition of the Word of God.
 - The Aaronic Old Testament contains 22 books. The Bible says that there were 22 generations between Adam and Jacob. The 119th psalm has 22 parts, while the 25th psalm is made up of 22 verses.s
 - The word “light“ is used 22 times in the Gospel of John.
 - The Number 22 is the Number of Revelation. It governs the overall structure of Scripture, from the Twenty-two Spokes of the Bible Wheel to the Twenty-two Spokes of the Inner Wheel of Revelation.⁴²
 - The Number 22 unites the entire Bible in the form of the Wheel, and the Wheel (Galgal = 66) unites the heart of all 66 Books of the Holy Bible, and all of this is united in the intrinsic alphanumeric structure of the Greek and Hebrew languages. Three Cycles of 22 Books united in One perfect Circle. Three and One; the Holy Trinity/Singularity.⁴²

- “And Solomon gave to the Lord for peace-offerings, twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel kept the feast of the opening of the Lord's house.” (Kings 8:63)⁴³
- “That the Hebrews have twenty-two letters is testified by the Syrian and Chaldæan languages which are nearly related to the Hebrew, for they have twenty-two elementary sounds which are pronounced the same way, but are differently written.” (The Principal Works of St. Jerome — St. Jerome, The Books of Samuel and Kings)⁴³
 - The references to “twenty-two” within Hebrew text and the bible are rather curious. Several kings reign for 22 years and their successors are 22 years of age: Twenty-two brothers ... and so-on. The number seems to have an ancient meaning which has been lost; other than the Hebrew definition for judgment.
- The number 24 is associated with the priesthood.
 - Since it is composed of a multiple of 12, it takes on some of 12's meaning (which is God's power and authority, as well as perfect foundation) except in a higher form. Twenty-four, therefore, is also connected with the worship of God, especially at the temple.
 - “And round about the throne were four and twenty seats, and upon the seats I saw four and twenty Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crowns of gold.” (Rev)
- The number 37 has no specific significance as far as numerology
 - Psalm 37: “Do not be provoked by evildoers; do not envy those who do wrong. ...”
 - It is a prime number: 37 x 1
- The number 46 has no specific significance with respect to numerology
 - Psalm 46: “For the leader. A song of the Korahites. According to alamoth. God is our refuge and our strength, an ever-present help in distress. ...”
 - “alamoth” is a melody, now lost; similar to “Aumont” (Mrs. Madeleine Aumont): A melody by ladies.
 - Psalm 23 is similar to Psalm 46: “God is my Sheppard...”
 - The number for angels, on the cloak of Our Lady of Guadalupe
 - In Revelations, Angels are symbolized by Stars.
 - (x8) points on each star
 - The 46th Doctrine & Covenants contains 13 gifts
 - The 13th is the gift of Eternal Life.³⁴
 - An item of note: 24 + 22 combined make 46
 - Daniel 12:11, “And from the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the abomination of desolation is set up, there shall be one-thousand two-hundred and ninety days.”
 - Daniel 12:12, “Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one-thousand three-hundred and thirty-five days.”
 - Thus, blessed is he who waits 46 (additional) days!
 - Luke 21:19, “By your patience possess your souls.”

Note: December 2018 “A new altar, fit for the Temple, was dedicated outside the walls of the Old City of Jerusalem.” For animal sacrifices.⁶¹

B. Other Bits of Numbers – III:

As mentioned, the Aztec calendar is on a 52-year cycle which corresponds to the Myan calendar. The 52-year cycle seemingly corresponds to widespread death.

Before Easter of 2019, April 14th, the Aztec calendar was on solar year 7, day 8 of the 13th day-period. A bit of numerology behind this date: $12 + 1 = 13$ (Jesus + apostles) and 8 is the value for Jesus and the number of “points” on the stars of Our Lady of Guadalupe. $616/7 = 88$, a whole number. The date is notable because the Notre-Dame Cathedral burnt down

On Easter of 2020, April 12th, the Aztec calendar was on solar year 8, day 8 of the 13th day-period. A bit of numerology behind this date: $12 + 1 = 13$ (Jesus + apostles) and 8 is the value for Jesus and the number of “points” on the stars of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Also, $616/8 = 77$, a whole number: Numerically speaking, whole numbers are a lot easier to obtain than prime numbers. The date is notable because the Wuhan virus or Covid-#19 spread death throughout the world.

In 1968 (52 years prior to 2020 per the Aztec calendar) the Hong Kong flu pandemic broke-out, killing over 1 million people. Though the first recorded incident was in 1968, the virus most likely got its start in 1967. The Wuhan virus hit its peak in the US around Easter of 2020.

The Spanish pandemic of 1918 is thought to originated in the Etaples camp in 1916; by virologist John Oxford; though it is a rough estimate, the values line-up. Note: $2020 - 52 - 52 = 1916$.

Black death reached Europe in October of 1347; it began east of Europe. “Even before the death ships pulled into port at Messina, many Europeans had heard rumors about a “Great Pestilence” that was carving a deadly path across the trade routes of the Near and Far East. Indeed, in the early 1340s, the disease had struck China, India, Persia, Syria and Egypt.”³² Therefore, the “Great Pestilence” could’ve began in the 1343/44, which means by the year 2019/20, (x13) periods of 52 years have passed. Knowing that God allows Satan to act because of the sins/perversions of man: Thus, Satan must’ve been let out of his prison prior to the middle of the 14th century.

Fast-forward 52 years, Mid-December of 2071 the Aztec calendar goes to solar year 8, day 8 of the 13th day-period: What will happen (exactly) is unknown. Should the hate and perversions continue, another virus is likely.

Aside: The virus of 2020 was said to have escaped from a lab in November/December of 2019. The Aztec calendar was on solar year 8, day 12 of the 13th day-period on December 21st of 2019: $(616)/(8) = 77$, a whole number.

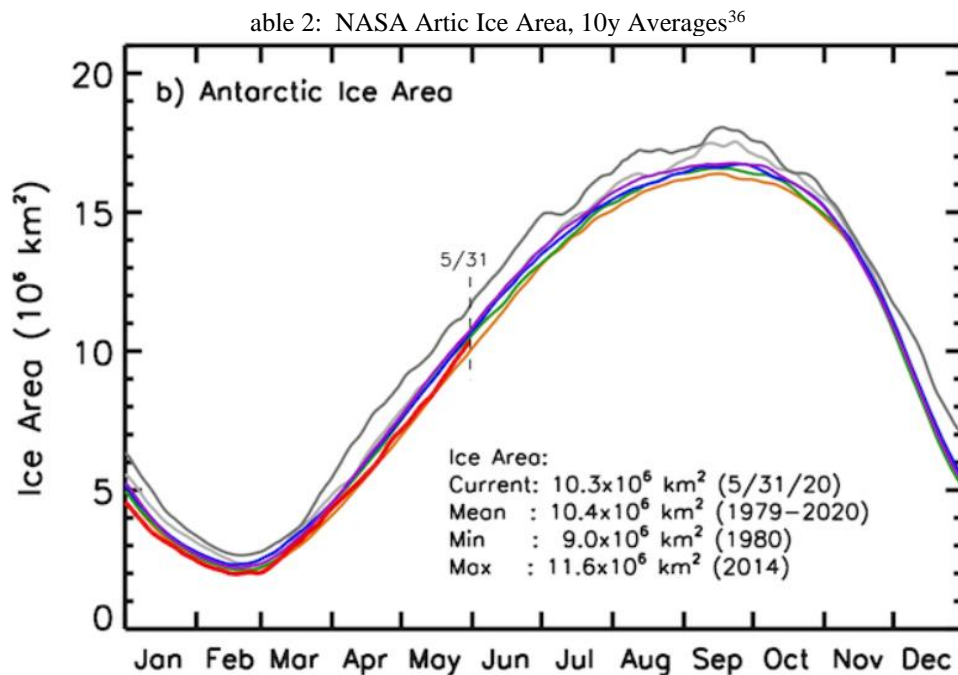

The number 52 seems to be linked to Satan’s actions; should God allow him to act. Therefore, in approximately 52 years according to the current calendar another pandemic, war, famine or beastly catastrophe (Ezekiel 14:21) will fall upon us (iff ...).

C. Visitation Summation:

The visitations by Our Lord in the 1970's, by Our Mother Mary in 1917, by Our Lord in the 1670's and by Our Mother in the 1531 contain the common thread of peace and joy. The unholy one, Satan, knows the pure peace, the pure joy which is found in heaven and is tormented by the fact that he will no longer partake in its everlasting peace and joy:¹⁰ He (the fallen one) also knows his time is short. The true path is narrow, not many find it or wish to follow it; for the path to destruction is wide and easy to follow. The construction of the Glorious Cross was requested by Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ; The Word Incarnate. Woe to the world in the delay of its construction.

V. The Current World-wide Catastrophe:

On the 17th of April of 2020 the journal, "Science"³⁵ states that data demonstrates that since the year 2000, the western United States has gotten dryer and dryer and is in the midst of a megadrought; titled "Large contribution from anthropogenic warming to an emerging North American megadrought" by A. Park Williams^{1,*}, Edward R. Cook¹, Jason E. Smerdon¹, Benjamin I. Cook^{1,2}, John T. Abatzoglou^{3,4}, Kasey Bolles¹, Seung H. Baek^{1,5}, Andrew M. Badger^{6,7,8}, Ben Livneh^{6,9}. The study states "... soil moisture to show that the period from 2000 to 2018 was the driest 19-year span since the late 1500s and the second driest since 800 CE (see the Perspective by Stahle). This appears to be just the beginning of a more extreme trend toward megadrought as global warming continues." Recent information as of October 2020, indicates that the drought continues.

The journal utilized tree rings from June thru August to measure soil moisture; affecting the western United States and Northern Mexico. They site reduced snowpack, reduced river flow and lake levels, declines in ground-water availability, shifts in agricultural activities, increase in wildfires and reduced vegetation. The paper also points to global warming. However, if global warming were the cause, there would be more evaporation, more cloudy days and the ice at the poles would be getting smaller: Per the latest NASA data, the icecaps are growing (able 2). A notable item; in May of 2020 New York’s Central Park received its first “May Snowfall” since 1977. The data shows that the 2012 averages were greater than in the 70-80’s. NASA updated analysis: “According to the new analysis of satellite data, the Antarctic ice sheet showed a net gain of 112 billion tons of ice a year from 1992 to 2001. That net gain slowed to 82 billion tons of ice per year between 2003 and 2008. ... The good news is that Antarctica is not currently contributing to sea level rise, but is taking 0.23 millimeters per year away,”(NASA Aug 2017, Maria-José Viñas)

The scientific theory behind the tree rings analysis are a very accurate and an excellent way to look into the past. A report in October of 2020, by the US Department of Agriculture attributed part of the 50+[%] crop losses in Iowa to a late summer drought: “The damage then was compounded in late summer with a drought that, at its peak, encompassed much of the state.” There is no doubt that the world is experiencing a drought of epic proportions.

A. Data in Western USA:

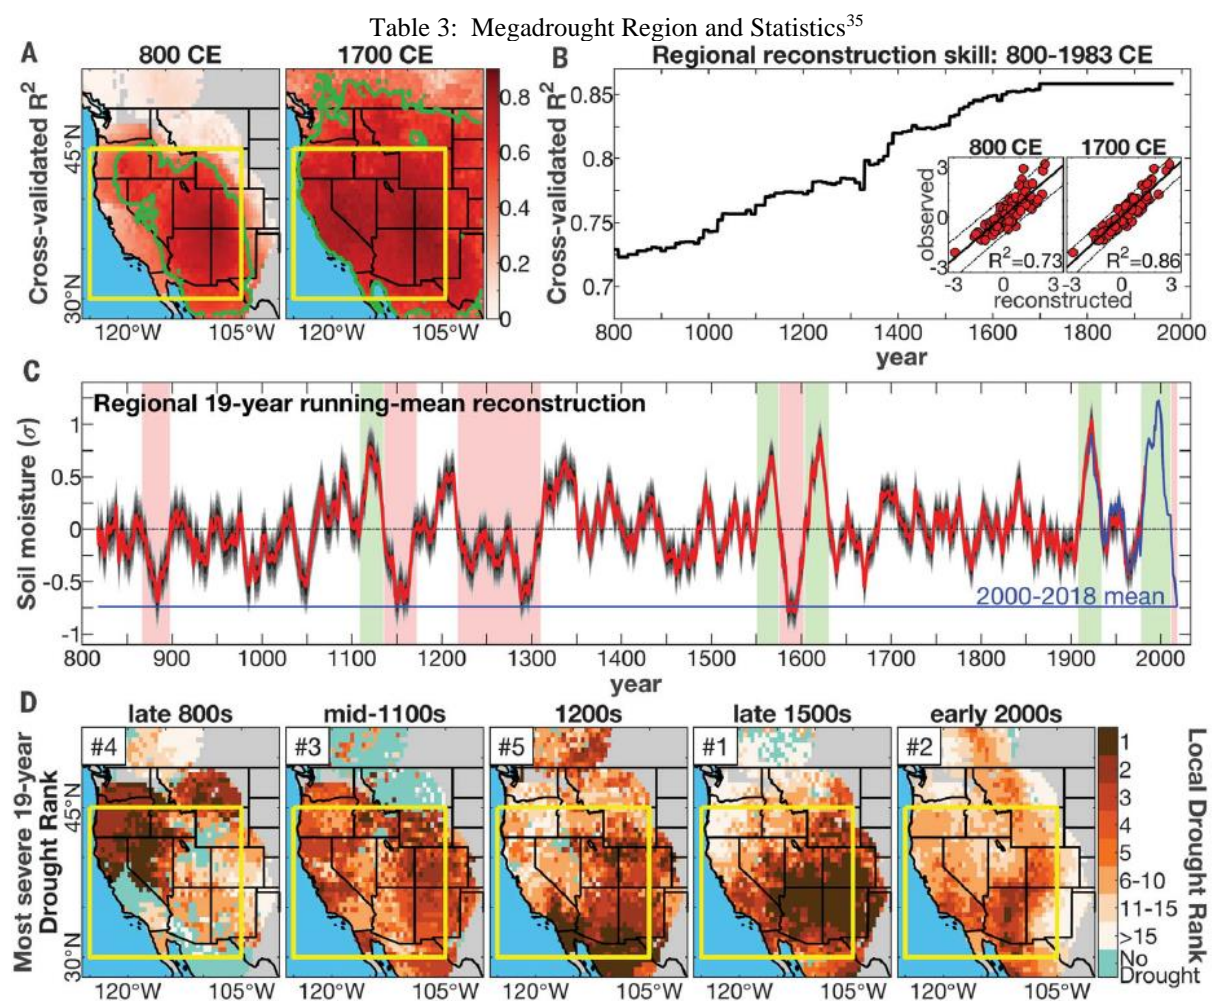

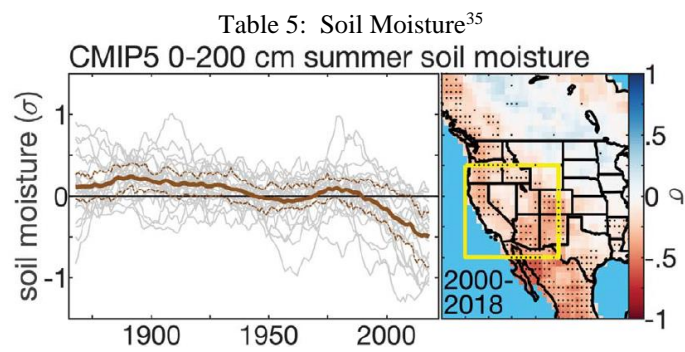

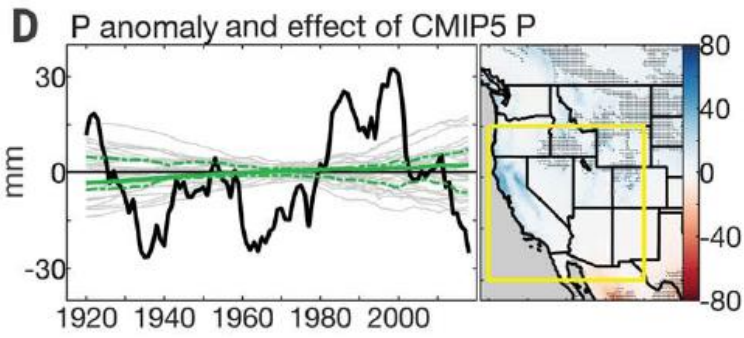

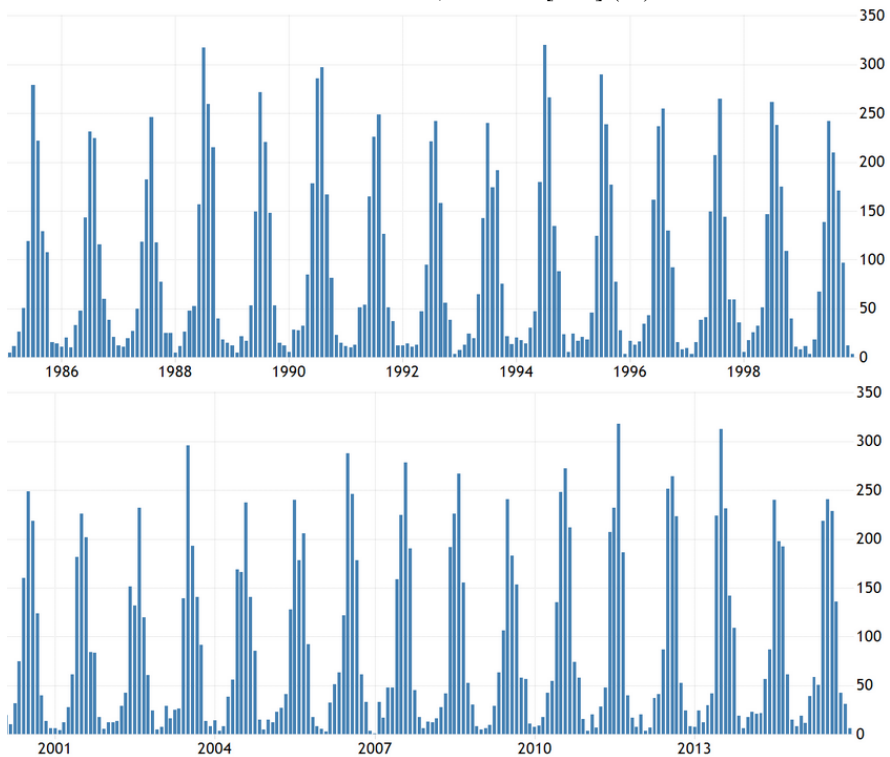

Table 4: Annual Precipitation³⁵

B. Data in India:

Table 6: India Rainfall, Amount [mm] (vs) Year

The statistics show that the world is in the midst of a severe drought. Though weather models are woefully inaccurate, the data from around the world has confirmed this mega-drought: The deluge lasted for 40 days, this drought is expected to last 40 years. “The tree-ring record serves as an ominous reminder that natural climate variability can drive SWNA (South West North America) megadroughts that are as severe and longer than the 21st-century drought thus far. The atmosphere and ocean anomalies that drove past megadroughts very likely dwarfed those that occurred during 2000–2018”³⁵ This drought is not localized to the United States; namely due to the unexplained ocean anomaly. After examining the average rainfall in/around India, the rain has decreased when comparing the years 1985-1998 to the years 2001 to 2014;³⁷ there is at least a 1.3[%] drop in rainfall in India: About 13[mm] less rain per year, which is more than Phoenix, Arizona sees in most calendar months.

In July of 2020 it was reported³⁸ “‘Catastrophic’ elephant deaths mystery: Hundreds have dropped dead in Botswana, and no one knows why. ... ruling out poaching as the tusks were found intact. Several live elephants appeared to have been weak, lethargic and emaciated, with some showing signs of disorientation, difficulty in walking or limping, EWB said. ‘One elephant was observed walking in circles, unable to change direction although being encouraged by other herd members,’ said the report.” Reports in September of 2020 note that many elephant groups have died and could be caused by toxic algae; in stagnate water. Other reports from the region state that ground water-wells could run dry by 2025.³⁹

C. Data in South Africa:

Since Capetown, South Africa (900 miles, 1,500[km], south of Botswana) is a coastal town it should receive relatively consistent rainfall; but Figure 42, shows that the rainfall has decreased more over the past 19 years than at any time in recorded history. Since the year 2000, the rainfall averages add up to 10,664[mm]: The nearest recorded 19-year span is 1920-1939, with 11,054[mm]. Therefore, Capetown Africa is experiencing at least 3.6[%] decrease in rainfall; the city is dryer now than in the past 150 years. These downward trends exist across the world.

Two poignant facts:

- There is more ice since the 1970's
 - The poles are cooler
 - The world is dryer
 - The thickness of the ice is growing
 - 90[%] of the North pole is beneath the water
 - Total mass of ice was greater in the 1970's than 2020
 - The ice-cap growth is less now because there is less water in the air
 - How can the cup of water be warmer when there is more ice?
 - Ice breaking off of the South pole will increase
 - More ice yields larger stresses
 - More ice yields larger icebergs breaking off
 - More ice reduces local humidity, increasing local temperatures
- Higher local temperatures can be expected
 - "A" = The energy in air at 25[C] or 77[F] and a relative humidity of 30[%]
 - "B" = The energy in air at 25[C] or 77[F] and a relative humidity of 80[%]
 - $(\text{Energy} - A) / (\text{Energy} - B) \rightarrow (\text{Energy} - A)$ is 1.1 [%] greater
 - To make the energy the same, $(\text{Energy} - B)$ would have to INCREASE in temperature.
 - Since the humidity remains relatively consistent, hot-spots/zones will form as the density of the air decreases: Until the water is used-up.
 - The definition of humidity is water in the air: Not water-vapor. Water-vapor has a lot more energy than water. Humidity is water floating in the air.
 - Areas with high humidity's can expect even higher temperatures

D. Final Words:

A lady, Anna, who witnessed the arrival of the baby Jesus to the temple (per the law of Moses on his 2nd year of mortal life) announced to the thirsty that the Jesus lives. She was likely seen as a crazy old woman and likely ignored. The lady of Dozule relayed the message “there is water, where there should be none:” The pool they had built swelled with the water of purification. Even today, people believe she was crazy as she reported what Jesus had told her: “Always be joyful, don't bewail the general cataclysm of this generation, because all this must happen. But behold the Sign of the Son of Man in the sky. And now the time of the nations must be accomplished. All will beat their breasts. After the evangelisation of the whole world, then I shall return in glory.”

Daniel 7:23 “The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom on earth” Per the Aztec calendar the world is currently in the fifth era.

Luke 21:11, “There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky.”

Luke 21:20, “When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, know that its desolation is at hand...”

Revelations 20:9, “They invaded the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the holy ones and the beloved city. But fire came down from heaven and consumed them.”

Luke 21:25, “There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on earth nations will be in dismay, perplexed by the roaring of the sea and the waves.”

Isaiah 17:12, “Ah! the roaring of many people, a roar like the roar of the seas! The thundering of nations, thunder like the thundering of mighty waters!”

Note: Today, the peoples roar as nations bite their own citizens; for the faithful are beginning to stand.

On April 7th of 2020, the moon was its brightest for that year; being a full moon at its perigee. Previous ones occurred on January of 1948 and November of 2016; the next is November 25th of 2034.⁴⁴ In Dozule, France at 22:34 hours (10:34pm) the supermoon will shine; it will be 461[km] closer to earth than the full moon of 2020.⁴⁵ Thus, the 22nd hour of the day reappears as a significant time/number (of day).

Note: Caen, France is west of Dozule.

Cetus is a constellation of a monster, flanked on both sides (east and west) by the moon and Jupiter. The Aztec's referred to Jupiter as "the ruler of the heavens."⁴⁶ And the moon-god led the Aztec's to victory over their enemies.⁴⁶ Recall, the arms of the Glorious Cross stretch from east to west. Note also that the Pleiades constellation is just above the moon, to the right; above the monster. With the Glorious Cross on earth, the monster would be trapped.

Luke 21:28, "... when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand."

Aside: Hold your head high, stand firm: Rejoice for your name is written in the Book of Life.

Premonitions in the early 1970's foretold of a worldwide megadrought "before the end of this century," and a recent study shows that the mega drought began in late 1999. This strange and unexplainable weather phenomenon continues to worsen. Global warming cannot be the main cause because the icecaps are growing. Though a complete causation has yet to be determined, the Glorious Cross of Dozule is a viable solution. The economic benefits and shear glory of the cross have been understated, here-in, placing most of the onus upon the religious leaders for its construction. Prior to the birth of Jesus, a religious leader named Zachari had doubt and he was silenced, for a time. Time after time religious leaders have failed to act in an expeditious manner, placing souls at risk: Concerning themselves with things other than the Church and souls. The image of Our Lady of Guadalupe was not officially recognized by the church until 1895 (over 360 years) and Juan wasn't found venerable until 1987. The visitation to the blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque took 70+ years to recognize; and many died because a king could not hear and religious leaders did not believe. The visitation by Mother Mary in Fatima took over 60+ years to recognize; and wars broke-out. In the midst of the worldwide mega drought, the 2020 pandemic took the lives of many and affected the world. This epic drought may last another 20 years and is already severely affecting Africa. Driven by thirst, peoples will strive to stay alive. Peoples thirst can be quenched by lifting the Glorious Cross from the face of the earth; saving souls and giving the Lord a reason to smile.

Freedom, though rarely mentioned, is prevalent throughout the guidance given by our Lord.

And so, it is written; the truth be told:
Your fate is in your hands.

The layer just above the general atmosphere, the troposphere, is the stratosphere. Stratosphere is the layer of Earth's atmosphere lying between the troposphere and the mesosphere. The lower portion of the stratosphere is nearly isothermal (a layer of constant temperature) whereas temperatures in its upper levels increase with altitude. The stratosphere extends from the tropopause at about 10 to 17 km (about 6 to 11 miles) altitude to its upper boundary (the stratopause) at about 50 km (30 miles), and it also contains the ozone layer.⁴⁸ The main compound we can find in the stratosphere is ozone. Approximately 85-90% of the total ozone in our atmosphere is found in this layer. This gas is formed by photolysis of the oxygen that already exists in the stratosphere. The majority of gases other than ozone that manage to reach and enter this layer come from the troposphere because of their long life or, because these gases have been released through volcanic eruptions, which release large amounts of gases and some particles that go directly into the stratosphere. Therefore, we can say that the main compounds we find in the stratosphere are: nitrogen oxides, nitric acid, sulfuric acid, silicates, ozone and halogens.^{49,50} As seen in Figure 47, the density of the layer is about (x60) less than the troposphere. Above the stratosphere the air density is near zero; thus, so too is their contribution to thermodynamic conductivity.

The final layer for thermal conductivity is the stratosphere, where about 90[%] of it is made-up of O₃ (ozone) which has a thermal conductivity of about 0.039[W/m/K] (estimate based on thermal mass ratios of oxygen). Since the average density is about 1/50th of normal air and the layer thickness is about (x40) greater its contribution to the overall thermal conductivity should not be ignored. Therefore, from the earth surface to space the thermal conductivity of the air is about 0.0267[W/m/K].

This simple model shows that increasing the CO₂ concentration in the atmosphere, the troposphere, by (x1000) will reduce the thermal conductivity by about 15[%]: Plus, the oxygen content would drop to 13.5[%]. Similar results are found when considering just the troposphere; the habitable atmosphere.

The two items of significance here are:

1) The thermal conductivity drops; meaning the earth's heat loss increases. The earth would cooldown quicker.

2) Mammals would find it difficult to breathe with (x1000) more CO₂; similar to high mountains in Colorado, USA (about 12,000[ft] or 3700[m]).

Appendix A.ii: Earth Thermal Convection & Radiation:

The thermal dynamics of the earth are related to its position and motion in space. Consider the movement of the earth's surface with respect to the planet's center. The earth rotates once every 23 hours, 56 minutes and 4.09053 seconds, called the sidereal period, and its circumference is roughly 40,075 kilometers. Thus, the surface of the earth at the equator moves at a speed of 460 meters per second--or roughly 1,000 miles per hour. As schoolchildren, we learn that the earth is moving about our sun in a very nearly circular orbit. It covers this route at a speed of nearly 30 kilometers per second, or 67,000 miles per hour. In addition, our solar system--Earth and all--whirls around the center of our galaxy at some 220 kilometers per second, or 490,000 miles per hour. As we consider increasingly large size scales, the speeds involved become absolutely huge!⁵⁴

At these speeds the thermal convective coefficient would be just as "absolutely huge." The exosphere is essentially space; with (respectively) daytime temperatures of 260[F] or 127[C] and night time temperatures of -280[F] or 173[C].⁵⁴ During the daytime, the earth receives radiative energy from the sun and at night the energy escapes. These temperatures can be directly related to the thermal convection between the troposphere and the stratosphere: An increase or decrease in energy would (similarly) in/decrease the convective heat coefficient. At these huge speeds and drastic energy differences any perturbation in temperature/energy would quickly dissipate.

After some study, it has been shown (in many references) that many layers in the earth's atmosphere are relatively consistent with respect to their altitude. Though the temperatures in the vacuum of space change from day-to-night, the layers remain stable. This implies that the huge convective coefficients due to the velocity of space against the earth's atmosphere may be ignored. However, the thermal convection between the troposphere and the stratosphere cannot be ignored; because of the high and relatively similar densities between the two layers.

Convection models of the earth's atmosphere have not studied layers above the troposphere.⁵⁵ Over a 7 day period the weather over a popular city can be predicted 80[%] of the time; and over a 10 day period about 50[%] of the time.⁵⁶ Scientists and engineers are excited when theory is accurate to within 10[%] of actual phenomena; and rather disappointed when the error rates are above 15[%]. Thus, no meaningful convective model exists for a 7 to 15⁺-day period. Even in desert regions, thermal predictions for the next day (highs/lows) may be off by more than 10[%]; often differing by more than 5[%]. Therefore, weather models are not accurate with respect to temperature.

Examples of the weather predictions that are deemed "a success:"

1) The weather in Portland, US: It is known that it rains more than 200 days per year, so stating "rain is likely" is rather obvious.

2) The desert regions: To say it's going to be hot without rain is obvious.

- 3) If the weather predicts “snow” and it actually rains, it is counted as a successful prediction.
- 4) In 2005 a record setting 15 hurricanes hit the United States; 7 of which were category 3 or greater. The great (cat-5) hurricane Katrina: “Katrina was an extraordinarily powerful and deadly hurricane that carved a wide swath of catastrophic damage and inflicted large loss of life.”⁵⁷ Weather predictions from around the world came in with a warning (paraphrasing) “Next year is going to be even worse if we don’t do something about global warming.” The US government’s weather center stated: “NOAA’s 2006 Atlantic hurricane season outlook indicates an 80% chance of an above-normal hurricane season, a 15% chance of a near-normal season.”⁵⁸ After the year 2006 passed, no hurricane hit the United States. In fact, it was one of the least active seasons on record. 5 weak hurricanes, 3 category-1’s and 2 category-3’s, dissipated harmlessly in the Atlantic Ocean.

The three items of significance here are:

- 1) Convective heat transfer between the troposphere and the stratosphere is unknown.
- 2) The actual accuracy of weather models is woefully lacking.
- 3) Weather models are unable to accurately predict tomorrow’s high/low temperature; even in desert regions with high accuracy (+/1[%]).

Radiation energy absorbed by a material is defined by the Stean-Boltzmann law; where the energy is proportional to T^4 ; the temperature to the fourth-order. This theory is put to use every day; in ovens across the world.

Example:

Let the average atmospheric/troposphere day-temperature be 80[F] or 26.7[C].

Let the average atmospheric/troposphere night-temperature be 40[F] or 4.44[C].

- With respect to space, there is (x3) more energy during the day, then there is during the night.
- As seen in Table 7, the percentage of CO₂ in the atmosphere is less than 0.035[%]. Applying an optimistic collision theory, this translates into about 1/1000th [Kelvin] of an effect on energy/temperature. This is because a ray radiation must hit the nuclei of a CO₂ molecule before it can be reflected.

A reflected ray of radiation must hit the atom/nucleus before it is reflected back to the earth's surface. As noted, by volume CO₂ is less than 0.00035[-]th of the atmosphere; and other greenhouse gasses are a fraction of a fraction of the CO₂ volume content.

A ray reflected off of the earth surface must hit one of the three nuclei present in a CO₂ molecule. The speed of an electron is about 0.02[-] of the speed of light. Due to their relative size and speed, the odds of a photon (radiation ray) hitting an electron are mathematically zero: Even if the photon hit an electron it would excite the electron and pass-thru; not bounce back. Therefore, for the radiation ray to be reflected back to the earth it must hit the nucleus of the atom. The atomic (covalent) radius of a carbon atom is 67[pm] (pico-meter, 10⁻¹²). The atomic radius of an oxygen atom is 48[pm]. The charge radius of a proton is 0.833[fm] (femto-meter, 10⁻¹⁵). The radius of a neutron is 0.8[fm]. Knowing that the nucleus of an atom is made-up of protons and neutrons, oriented in a sphere, the volumetric ratio of the nuclei with respect to the molecule is more than 1300:1. This ratio, combined with the overall volumetric ratio of 0.035[%] yields an overall ratio of less than 10⁻⁶[-] or greater than 1,000,000:1. Switching to particle mechanics, it is trivial to show that the probability of a reflected ray off of a greenhouse gas is very, very rare. With respect to the previous example of day/night energies, the projected energy contribution due to a reflected ray of radiation is on the order of 0.8(10⁻⁶)[-] (day/night); thus, the radiation energy contribution is miniscule. The principle conclusions drawn from this analysis is that reflected rays are very, very rare and its relative contribution to day/night energy is insignificant.

Examples:

1) Using visible light as an example of ray/s of radiation: It is accepted that light cannot travel 1000[m] (1[km]) into the ocean. Light similar to “twilight” can reach depths of 200[m]: Which is similar to an air thickness of 200,000[m]⁺ or 200[km]. Since the sum-distance of the troposphere and the stratosphere is less than 100[km] and (x1,000)⁺ less-dense than ocean water, the radiation-ray has no difficulties passing thru earth's atmosphere; whether on its way in, or out.

2) Many readily available micro-wave ovens have a metal mesh on their door; for the user to see what's happening in the oven. Because micro-waves have a wave-amplitude (photon-amplitude/frequency/strength) that is greater/bigger than the size of the holes in the mesh, the wave cannot pass-thru (to the viewer's eye). Instead, the wave bounces until it hits something that can absorb its frequency/energy; which is water. There is water in the air; commonly referred to as humidity, these liquid droplets are suspended in the air. If a micro-wave oven is left on (for a long time, without something to "cook") the air temperature inside the oven does not noticeably change; even though 1.5[%]⁺ of the air is water. This is (x43) more than the concentration of greenhouse gasses in the atmosphere; yet there is no notable temperature increase. This is due to the fact that the micro-wave must hit the water molecule to "energize" it; not bounce-off or reflect-away. It is important to note that the odds of energizing a water molecule are much-much more likely than a ray of radiation bouncing off the nuclei of a molecule.

Appendix A.iii: Carbon-dioxide Production

Over thousands of years the Carbon dioxide and other gasses occupy less than 0.035[%] of the atmosphere and are emitted into the atmosphere thru the magma of the earth, animals, industrial plants and vehicles. The earths' crust is divided into plates that are continuously moving. At each separation volcanic gasses are released. Considering that 1 volcano can emit (x1,000) times more CO₂ than all of the vehicles in the United States (combined), the amount of CO₂ released from the tectonic plates is staggering: Yet, the volumetric fraction of CO₂ (and other gasses) has not increased.

On average, it has been shown that the production of CO₂ from gasoline vehicles is less than that of electric or hybrid vehicles. This is because the electric or hybrid vehicles are more than 50[%] heavier and their thermal effectiveness/efficiency is about 40[%] less than similar gasoline vehicles.⁵⁹ Thus, a quickie calculation shows that the required power for the electric vehicle about twice that of the gasoline vehicle.

The amount of CO₂ produced by an electric engine depends upon the type of fuel the electric plant utilizes. A coal power plant will produce more than (x8) more CO₂ than a gas engine. Using realistic values (rather than the idealized values in Ref. 59) an ethanol plant will produce 20-40[%] more CO₂ and a methane plant will produce 0-20[%] more CO₂ as compared to a thermally efficient 3- or 4-cylinder gasoline engine (with manual transmission). Also, the electric battery, itself, is a very harmful pollutant and becomes dead-weight in less than 6 years of use: The battery life is much less if the temperature drops below 40[F] or 4[C]. Therefore, without a fusion power plant, electric vehicles will pollute the environment to a greater extent than a (similarly sized) standard combustion engine.

A real-life example was made with a Geo-metro in early 2000's that had a manual transmission. Driving freeway miles at speeds of less than 55[mph], this gas-powered (3-cylinder) manual transmission vehicle achieved 50+ [mpg].⁵⁹

The egg analogy w/r control: Shrinking the earth down to the size of an egg, one discovers that the crust of the earth is about the same thickness as the shell of the egg and a pore on an egg is less than a tiny dot with an ink-pen. Now take 1,000 billion people, all weighing 200[Lbs] (90[kg], with the density of water), and shrink them with the earth and fit them into a pore. All of those people would fill a tiny fraction of the pore. Control logics dictate that the user "completely understand and/or overwhelm/force the desired system to work properly." It is rather simplistic to see that those 1,000 billion people will never control the earth for they do not completely understand nature; nor can they force nature to go against itself.

The greatest contribution to CO₂ to the atmosphere is nature; to a large extent it emanates from the earth's core. When considering the purchase of similar sized vehicles to reduce pollution to the environment, the 3- or 4-cylinder manual transmission, gasoline vehicle is far better than the electric or hybrid vehicle. When nuclear fusion becomes viable, then electric cars become a viable alternative.

Other gases contributing to the greenhouse effect, such as methane, are produced, in mass by decaying matter. Throughout the jungles and over the sea-floor huge amounts of methane are discharged into the atmosphere; still the total greenhouse gasses amount to less than 0.04[%] of the breathable air.

Appendix A.iv: Summary Conclusion

It is well documented that the earth weather changes over time; climate change has always existed. The earth was once covered in ice, called the "Snowball Earth" about 650M years ago. Century-to-century, day-to-day the climate changes. The mathematical models of the earth's atmosphere are woefully inaccurate; especially for thermal predictions. As CO₂ increases the atmospheric thermal conduction decreases; effectively cooling the planet. Also, carbon-dioxide, along with greenhouse gasses are less than 0.04[%] of the atmosphere and as such would have a minimal effect on the temperature of the earth; at most, the affect is on the order of 1/100th of a degree Kelvin. Mass-manufactured thermal sensors have difficulty reading dT's of 0.1[C] and are usually satisfied with an error of (+/-)10[%]. Add to the mix the unknown thermal convective coefficient between the troposphere and the stratosphere, the dire predictions of "global warming" dissipate. If a scientist does not have all of the equations and couple them properly, none of the predictions are reliable. All things considered: 1) The weather model-equations are incomplete/inaccurate 2) The thermal convective coefficient/s are unknown 3) Greenhouse gasses are a minuscule percentage of the atmosphere/troposphere 4) The probability of reflective radiation is next to zero 5) All weather-thermal predictions for the following week are best-guesses.

Appendix B: Revelations, A Timeline of Events

The timeline presented here is purely speculative; taken from historical documents and records. First noting that the book of Revelations is thought to have been written around 90AD.

2300 BC – The city of Babylon is founded.

1750 BC – Major city of Babylon is noted. The people worshiped idols, money and Satan's cohorts, the Beast and the False prophet (by extension, they worshiped Satan).

1595 BC – A sacking of Babylon; it's "glory" days were dwindling. Satan dwelt in heaven.

600 BC – Destruction by fire of Babylon

At or about this time the Beast and the False Prophet get thrown into the pit; and remain there for 1000[years]. Satan's two left hands were imprisoned.

0 – Christ is born

20-30 AD – Satan is thrown out of heaven

30-33 AD – Christ is Crucified

37 AD – Satan is born as Nero, who's number is 616.

68 AD – Satan dies by assassination or assisted suicide.

300 - 600 AD – The false prophet and the Beast are released from the pit.

900 AD – Utter annihilation of Babylon; only beasts roam there now; as prophesized in Revelations.

1000-1340's AD – Satan is released from the pit.

1340's AD – Satan is allowed to release the Black-plague upon the world; (x13) of 52[years] later, 2019, another pandemic hit the world.

Items of interest:

- The Muslim religion began after 600AD: Growing in popularity after capturing Mecca in 629/30.
- Catholicism began with the teachings of Jesus and grew greatly on the day of the visitation by the Holy Spirit: The 3rd Glorious Mystery of the Holy Rosary. It grew by more than 3,000 people that day. Fast forward to the 14th century (Satan has been released) and Catholic "power" was abused. Many variants of a religious nature exist today.

Appendix B.i: Summary Conclusion

Throughout time false prophets have confused those whom want to see/hear and love God. One very common deception is the physical; whether it be money and/or sex. Another common deception is based on ones' pride. To say "I am pleased" differs greatly from saying "I am proud;" for many kill to maintain their pride. Degeneration can start by replacing the word "I" with the word "we." A person stating "I believe in God" differs with one stating "We believe in God." The person whom states "I" accepts personal responsibility, whereas, the one whom states "we" advocates their personal responsibility to the group; thereby diluting the family. The family, being the foundation of society, is happiest when it is free and full of joy. A family who follows the 11 commandments and adheres to the guiding principles from the sermon on the mount will dwell in a sound, solid, home.

it's about those around you.*

Appendix C: Star Maps & Dates⁶⁰

Utilizing another star-map site⁶⁰, various dates are examined. The constellations themselves are visualized in “todays” relative position (to themselves): Therefore, the general position of the stars, planets and moon are examined here-in. This website contains maps for latitudes greater than 23[deg].

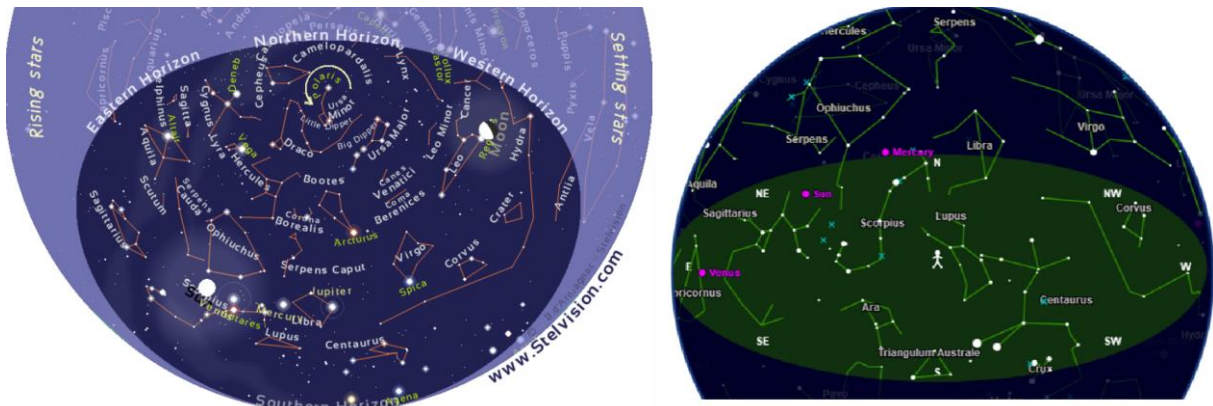

Figure 52: Mexico City Star Map for 10:26[am] 21 Dec, Winter Solstice of 1800^{Figure 7}

Concerning the first significant visitation by Our Lady of Guadalupe, the star-map from Mexico City is not available on this website, however, the star-maps are available for Fresnillo de González Echeverría at Latitude: 23.17 °N - Longitude: 102.88°W. Also, this website can go prior to the 1800’s.

On the date/time of the visitation of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the sun is next to Venus and the moon is on the western (sun-setting) horizon. The consolation Pleiades is on the opposite side of the earth. The Southern Cross is completely visible just below the constellation Centaurus. At 11[pm] or 2300 hours, Pleiades is directly above the viewer and Mars is the only planet visible; intersecting with the constellation of Pisces.

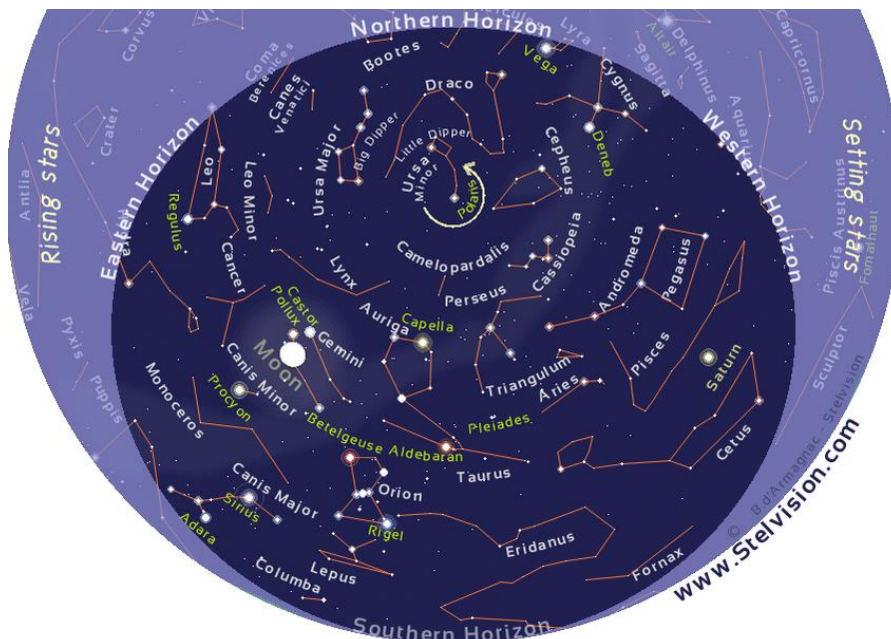

Figure 56: 1st Visit, Sacred Heart, 11[pm] on 27 December of 1673, Dozule, France

The sky-map of the first visit concerning the Sacred Heart of Jesus finds the moon to the left, Pleiades in-between the moon and Jupiter. The star-map of Figure 45 matches the (right-hand) star-map in Figure 57. The Pleiades constellation moves towards the moon as the monster, Cetus, is given less “room” in the sky: Both events have a full moon.

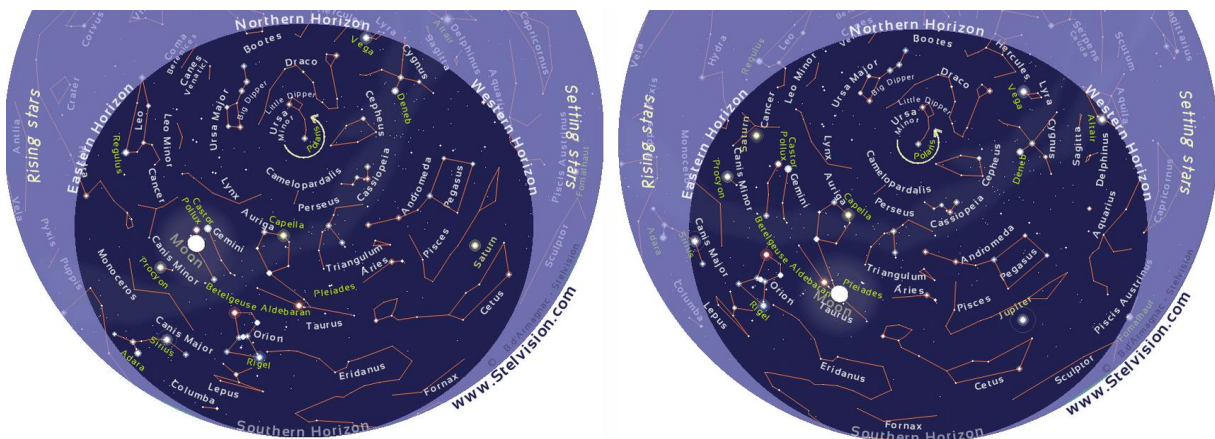

Figure 57: 27 December of 1673 verses 25 November 2034, over Dozule, France at 2300 hours or 11[pm]

The final visitation of Our Lady of Guadalupe or Our Lady of Fatima, our Mother Mary, was accompanied by Saint Joseph and Jesus. Here the constellation Pleiades is just beneath Jupiter and the monster, Cetus is not boxed-in: Also, the moon is near a New-moon; with a visible crescent of only 7[%]. https://www.calendar-12.com/moon_calendar/1917/october Recall, that the Bolshevik (Russian), Marxist, revolution began in earnest near the new moon of 16 October, 1917. The revolutionaries occupied government facilities by 25th of October. <https://www.britannica.com/topic/October-Revolution-Russian-history>

The 1st and final visitations by Jesus in Dozule France are accompanied by a full moon and the planet Jupiter: The constellation Cetus (the monster) is not present. Contrast this with the expected time of the Chinese virus outbreak (Corona-virus #19): The new moon of November of 2019. Where the monster has the sky to itself; with a new (no) moon and no Jupiter.

Appendix C.i: Summary Conclusion

These depictions of the sky-maps seem to indicate that the full moon and Jupiter are related to good events while the constellation Cetus without Jupiter or the moon indicate bad events. The super-moon of November of 2034 seems to indicate an extra-ordinary good event.
